CAPTAIN BARR SAYS COLUMBIA IS ALL RIGHT.

AS GOOD AS SHE SHOULD BE

THE DEFENDER LIES IDLE IN THE BAY TODAY.

CAPT. SYCAMORE PROTESTS

THINKS CAPT. BARR JOCKEYED HIM UNFAIRLY.

New York, Sept. 27.—The cup defender Columbia and the challenger Shamrock II. are lying quietly at their moorings in the bay at Sandy Hook this morning. The former flew the stars and stripes, but the Shamrock had no flags at either her masthead or taffrail. There was no intention on the part of the American boat to send her out for a spin today. Captain Barr had his crew at work overhauling some of the light sails. He said he thought the Columbia was going as fast as she ever did and that when a breeze comes she will give a good account of herself.

"She does not need any more spins just now," he said. "She is in very good shape."

Everything was quiet on board the Shamrock.

Shortly before 11 o'clock Sir Thomas Lipton, with Mr. Jameson and Mr. Watson, went on board the Shamrock. Before leaving the Erin Sir Thomas said to an Associated Press representative:

"While yesterday's race was not at all a fair test of the Shamrock's speed, I was very well satisfied with what she did. What we want is a good, strong breeze, and then I'm sure the Shamrock will give a good account of herself."

SYCAMORE'S PROTEST.

From an authentic source it was learned today that there is a very strong protest on the part of Captain Sycamore and those in charge of the Shamrock at what they term crowding of the Shamrock at the start yesterday by Captain Barr. "If he is going to continue those tactics there will be serious trouble," said the person quoted. "What he did yesterday would not be tolerated for an instant in a race in British waters. He must not expect us to stand it, and we won't. Our relations with the New York Yacht club and with the principals in this event have been so extremely pleasant that it is to be hoped one man's action shall not be permitted to mar them."

WAS NO RACE.

Yesterday's contest from a spectacular point of view and as to results was keenly disappointing to the thousands who went out to see it and returned disgusted.

At the end of five and one-half hours, the prescribed time, the race was officially declared off and the yachts were towed back to their berths inside Sandy Hook.

When the gun aboard the committee boat was fired to call attention to the signal declaring the race off the American yacht was still five miles from the finish line. The Englishman was well astern of her, the experts estimating her distance behind the Columbia at over three-quarters of a mile.

LIPTON IS HOPEFUL.

London, Sept. 27.—Sir Thomas Lipton has cabled to his friends here, "Am very hopeful," but the feeling is not reflected by public opinion, which foresees defeat for the Shamrock II. in her races with the Columbia for the America's cup. The afternoon newspapers derive scant comfort from the account of yesterday's contest. The St. James Gazette points out that, in spite of all suggestions that the conditions prevent accurate judgment of comparative merits of the two yachts, "the plain fact stands out that under a condition of weather which was the same to both, the American boat got a bit nearer the winning line than our own." The Pall Mall Gazette is practically alone in thinking that the American experts are easily satisfied if they are already convinced that the Columbia is the better boat. The paper's comment is probably based on the conclusion of its own correspondent's long account of the race, which commences: "The Columbia did much to shatter the Lipton hope yesterday," and concludes: "The day's sailing did nothing to suggest that the Shamrock will not win in a good breeze. I think she will."

MAY DROP CONTROVERSY.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 27.—The controversy between President T. J. Shaffer, of the Amalgamated association, and President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, and John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, may be dropped. The official communication from Presidents Gompers and Mitchell was received by President Shaffer today. He said he can afford to ignore it, but has not decided what action he will take. He has asked President Simon Burns to represent him if the dispute is to be investigated and Mr. Burns has agreed to do so. The details have not been arranged, but Mr. Shaffer has been advised to drop the matter.

FIRST RIDE ON INTERURBAN

FORT WAYNE PARTY GOES TO HUNTINGTON TOMORROW.

City Officials and Business Men Will Be the Guests of the Management on Informal Trip.

Tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock a party of Fort Wayne gentlemen, comprising city officials, business men, members of the Commercial club and newspaper men, will start upon the initial trip over the Fort Wayne and Southwestern interurban line.

The party will be the guests of the railroad management, and will leave the Taylor street bridge in two of the new interurban cars—"Indiana" and "Kentucky"—propelled by a steam locomotive owned by the company. At Roanoke a small party of business men from that town will board the cars.

The trip is entirely informal and is made solely to give the people an idea of the work that has actually been done on the line. General Manager Nelson said this morning that the trip would be repeated as soon as the electric equipment was installed.

At Huntington the excursionists will be met by the mayor, city council and members of the Huntingtonian club, and after an inspection of the power station of the Southwestern company the visitors will be taken for a drive over the Lime City. Two weeks from tomorrow it is expected to bring a similar party of Huntington people to Fort Wayne.

AN INSANE MOTHER'S DEED

DROWNS HER THREE CHILDREN AND HERSELF.

Mrs. Curtiss, Near Cleveland, Puts Her Three Little Ones to Death in Cistern.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 27.—Mrs. Percy Curtiss, wife of a farmer living near Northfield, Ohio, a few miles south of this city, early today threw her three children in a well and then plunged into the water herself. All of the children and the mother were drowned. The father was temporarily absent from home when the tragedy occurred. The children were aged 3, 5 and 7, respectively. It is supposed that Mrs. Curtiss was mentally deranged when she committed the deed. She was discharged from the insane asylum at Massillon a few weeks ago.

PITIABLE TERROR

CZOLGOSZ COLLAPSES WHEN HE REACHES PRISON.

GUARDS HAD TO CARRY HIM

SHRIEKED AND GROANED WITH ABJECT FEAR.

NOW SORRY FOR HIS CRIME

FEELS ESPECIALLY FOR MRS. M'KINLEY.

Auburn, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Czolgosz, President McKinley's murderer, in custody of Sheriff Caldwell, of Erie county, and twenty-one deputies, arrived in Auburn at 3:15 a. m. The prison is only about fifty yards from the depot.

Awaiting the arrival of the train there was a crowd of about 200 people. Either for fear of the crowd, which was very demonstrative, or from sight of the prison, Czolgosz's legs gave out and two deputy sheriffs were compelled to practically carry the man into the prison.

Inside the gate his condition became worse, and he was dragged up the stairs and into the main hall. He was placed in a sitting posture on the bench while the handcuffs were being removed, but he fell over and moaned and groaned, evincing the most abject terror. As soon as the handcuffs were unlocked the man was dragged into the principal keeper's office.

SHRIEKED IN TERROR.

As in the case of all prisoners, the officers immediately proceeded to strip him and put on a new suit of clothes. During the operation Czolgosz cried and yelled, making the prison corridors echo with evidence of his terror. The prison physician, Dr. John Gerin, examined the man and ordered his removal to the cell in the condemned row, which he will occupy until he is taken to the electric chair. The doctor declared that the man was suffering from fright and terror, but said that he was shamming to some extent.

The collapse of the murderer was a surprise to every one. En route from Buffaol he showed no indication of breaking down. He ate heartily of sandwiches and smoked cigars when not eating.

SORRY FOR MRS. M'KINLEY.

He talked some and expressed his regret for his crime. He said:

"I am especially sorry for Mrs. McKinley."

He reiterated his former statement that he had had no accomplices and declared that he never heard of the man under arrest in St. Louis who claimed to have tied the handkerchief over his hand, concealing the pistol with which the president was shot. He says the handkerchief was not tied. He went behind the Temple of Music, arranged the handkerchief so as to hide the weapon and then took his place in the crowd. To Jailor Mitchell he sent this message to his father:

"Tell him I'm sorry I left such a bad name for him."

IN NORMAL CONDITION.

Czolgosz was in normal condition this afternoon and seemed to have fully recovered from his collapse.

There are five cells for condemned men in the prison, and Czolgosz was placed in the only vacant cell, so all are now occupied. Two keepers are constantly on guard in the room, which is separate from the main prison, but to guard against an attempt on Czolgosz's part to commit suicide two more guards have been added, and one will constantly sit in front of Czolgocz's cell and will have a key, so that any attempt at self-destruction may be easily frustrated.

SHAMROCKS AT MUNCIE.

The Shamrocks will leave for Muncie at 5 o'clock Sunday morning via the Lake Erie and Western. They will play the strong Muncie independent team in the afternoon. The Shamrocks defeated the Muncies in the game earlier in the season.

THE PRESIDENT'S WILL.

MRS. PULLMAN DIVORCED.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Judge Bishop today granted a decree of divorce to Mrs. Lynn Pullman from George M. Pullman, son of the late palace car magnate. Alimony was fixed at $1,000 a year and the plaintiff granted permission to apply for an increase in the alimony and for fees later. Mr. Pullman, who is now in California, let the suit go by default.

WERE SEEKING A TREASURE

MIDNIGHT EXCAVATIONS ON ST. MARY'S AVENUE.

Mysterious Party Made Two Visits to the Locality and It Has Aroused Curiosity.

Residents along St. Mary's avenue are indulging in considerable mental speculation concerning happenings along that thoroughfare on two evenings this week and an air of impregnable mystery surrounds the whole circumstance. It is believed unknown parties were searching for a treasure supposed to be buried there, but whether or not anything was realized from the explorations is only conjecture.

It is stated that one night during the present week, precisely at midnight, two or three parties came up the avenue armed with shovels and at a point near the north end began making an excavation at the side of the street. They were observed by a family living in the neighborhood, but no further investigation was made and the mysterious visitors soon left. For some unaccountable reason no exploration of the place was made during the day following, and at midnight another party, larger in number than the one of the previous night, put in an appearance. There was more digging, and they, also, finally departed as mysteriously as had their predecessors. No later developments have shed any light upon the work of the nocturnal explorers and the matter seems to be enveloped in mystery.

CONTRACT FOR NEW PUBLIC LIBRARY BUILDING.

Trustee Hamilton Says School Trustees are Doing All in Their Power to Hurry Work Along.

Regarding the progress toward the erection of the new Fort Wayne public library, made possible by the Carnegie gift of $75,000, made months ago, President Hamilton, of the school board, who left the city on a business trip today, called up The Sentinel to say that the trustees are doing everything in their power to push the library work along.

Mr. Hamilton was quite confident that the contract for the building could be let in two weeks. "The specifications are in the hands of the printer," said he, "and the architect says the plans are ready. The work of removing the old building will be performed by the contractor for the new structure."

ADMIRAL SAMPSON'S COUNSEL CANNOT APPEAR.

IN SCHLEY INQUIRY COURT

SAMPSON'S REQUEST READ AND COURT DECIDES.

WISE DID NOT TELL SCHLEY

THAT CERVERA'S FLEET WAS IN SANTIAGO BAY.

Washington, Sept. 27.—The Schley court of inquiry this afternoon decided that counsel for Admiral William T. Sampson could not appear and take part in the proceedings as counsel.

At half past 2 o'clock this afternoon Judge Advocate Lemley read a letter from Admiral Sampson, dated at Lake Sunapee, N. H., September 2, asking that Messrs. Stayton and Campbell be allowed to represent him in the inquiry. Admirals Dewey, Benham and Ramsay, composing the court, after a conference, decided that they could not appear.

The testimony today again covered the point of Admiral Schley's knowledge of the Spanish fleet's presence at Santiago. Captain Wise stated for the third time in his testimony that he did not inform Admiral Schley that the Spanish fleet was there and did not ask Captain Sigsbee to do so.

DEWEY IS PROMPT.

As usual Admiral Dewey lost no time today in bringing the court of inquiry to order, and as usual the counsel on both sides of the case were in their seats and prepared to proceed promptly with the business before the court.

Indeed Captain Lemley and Mr. Hanna, the navy department's representatives, had been in the court room for an hour or more preparing the details for the day's work. They consider the present stage of the proceedings an important one, requiring the most careful attention. Captain lemley estimates that he will be able to conclude the presentation of the government side of the case by the close of next week if no unforeseen contingency arises to cause delay. He says he will have about fifteen or twenty more witnesses to introduce.

THERE FOR SAMPSON.

One of the most regular attendants upon the court is Mr. William H. Stayton, the attorney, who is understood to be prepared to represent other naval officers than Admiral Schley.

He sits outside the rail and does not in any way participate in the proceedings. He said yesterday that so long as Admiral Sampson was kept out of the case he would have nothing to say.

WISE DID NOT TELL SCHLEY.

Today's session began with the recall of Captain Wise to make verbal changes in the official copy of his testimony. His altered his previous statement concerning the order of the navy department of May 20, 1898, in which he was directed to "inform every vessel off Santiago that the flying squadron is off Cienfuegos," saying that he desired to correct his response to the court's question as to why this order was not carried out, by stating that it had been carried out.

"The flying squadron was ordered to proceed with all possible dispatch," he said, and added: "I did not desire to inform the commodore of the flying squadron of his own movements. The order was to inform commanders of the movements of the flying squadron."

The court then asked: "Did you direct Captain Sigsbee to give Commodore Schley the information contained in the dispatch from the navy department regarding the whereabouts of the Spanish squadron?"

"I did not."

Lieutenant Spencer S. Wood, who commanded the dispatch boat Dupont during the Spanish war, was then called and continued his testimony, begun yesterday.

HARBER WAS MISTAKEN.

Mr. Raynor resumed his cross-examination. The witness said that while off Cienfuegos he had been on picket duty two miles from shore on the night of May 22 and had been instructed to signal the squadron with two red lights in case the enemy's torpedo boats came out of the harbor.

Mr. Raynor then read from the testimony of Captain Harber, of the Texas, saying that there had been no picket vessels within the line of the fleet off Cienfuegos. The witness said that the statement was wrong.

Captain Lemley said Captain Harber had testified that there were no pickets "so far as he could recall," to which Mr. Raynor responded: "We are not impeaching Captain Harber's veracity. We are impeaching his recollection, not his integrity."

Mr. Raynor—"Captain Harber has stated that there were no picket boats at Cienfuegos. He was wrong, was he not?"

"He was," replied the witness.

"As I have seen since the commander-in-chief also reported that the Dupont was not there. I have written the department that I was there. Other people forgot about it too."

After further examination upon the same point Lieutenant Wood was asked what steps had been taken by the flying squadron to ascertain if the Spanish fleet was inside the harbor at Santiago. He replied:

"None that I know of."

"Was there any effort to destroy the shore batteries there?"

The witness replied that he knew of none. He said, replying to another question by Mr. Raynor, that vessels in the inside harbor could

REV. H. C. JAUS IS CALLED TO DECATUR.

Popular Pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran Church Received Call Today—May Accept.

Rec. H. C. Jaus, the popular pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran church, west of the city, today received a unanimous call to become pastor of the largest Lutheran church at Decatur, Ind. The call was somewhat in the nature of a surprise for Rev. Jaus, and he was not prepared today to state whether or not he would accept, but will give the call full consideration, and will probably lay the matter before his congregation on Sunday.

Rev. Jaus is a minister of more than usual ability, and is very popular, not only with his own congregation, but with a large circle of friends in the city and county. He has filled Lutheran pulpits in this city on numberous occasions and is in constant demand at Lutheran gatherings in all parts of the county.

Bethlehem church, of which he is pastor, was organized a few years ago, its members being those of Emanuel congregation residing west of Lindenwood cemetery. Under Rev. Jaus' capable administration the church has grown and prospered and the congregation now numbers several hundred.

Rev. Jaus was educated at the Lutheran seminary in Springfield, Ill., and for a number of years he was engaged in mission work in Texas and other points in the south, and later in the Indiana gas belt, becoming pastor of Bethlehem church soon after it was organized.

MR. CORTELYOU IN CANTON.

Canton, Ohio, Sept. 27.—Secretary to the President Cortelyou reached the city shortly after 10 o'clock this morning. Dr. Bixey met him at the station with the McKinley carriage and they went direct to the McKinley residence. While there has been no material change in the condition of Mrs. McKinley since the secretary was last here, she has at least held her own and has shown more interest in her personal affairs. Her condition is such that Mr. Cortelyou can go over with her the matters which brought him here.

FIERCE STORM IN OMAHA.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 27.—The heaviest storm of rain and hail for years struck Omaha and vicinity early today. Many telephone and electric light poles were blown down and street cars were blocked in several parts of the town. Police Sergeants Dempsey and Weisenburg and an electric light man were badly shocked by coming in contact with live wires, but all will recover. Down town streets were like small rivers and wooden sidewalks were washed into the street in a dozen places. The hail broke skylights and stripped trees of their foliage. There was an almost continuous succession of lightning flashes, which prostrated electric systems during the storm. In Council Bluffs the Northwestern yards were under two feet of water at one time and down town cellars were flooded.

A case of scarlet fever is reported at 299 Harrison street.

ANARCHIST EDITOR IN LIMBO

SPRING VALLEY (ILL.) RED IS IN SERIOUS PLIGHT.

Marion, Ind., Sept. 27.—Jerry Kuder, Peter Locke and James Spears, three veterans of the soldiers home here, who have been in the guard house of that institution since the night of the shooting of President McKinley for having expressed pleasure over the work of Czolgosz and hoped that the president would die, have been sentenced by the board of managers of the home to be publicly degraded and dishonorably discharged from that institution tomorrow.

ANARCHIST EDITOR IN LIMBO.

Spring Valley, Ill., Sept. 27.—John Ciancibilla, the proprietor of L'Aurore, the anarchist paper published here, which glowed with an account of the assassination of President McKinley, was arrested here today by United States Marshal St. Clair, of Streator. Postoffice Inspector B. F. Gilbert was here a few days ago and worked up the case. He then returned to Chicago and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Ciancibilla. The latter will be arraigned before United States Commissioner H. H. Dycus this afternoon on a charge of violating the postal laws by publishing lottery notices. There is said to be no law under which he can be prosecuted for the anarchistic language used in his paper, but the authorities state that the other charge will be pressed vigorously.

THE HERR MOST CASE.

New York, Sept. 27.—Hearing of the case against John Most, arrested Sunday night at Coruna, L. I., for violation of the section of the penal code relating to unlawful assemblage, was again adjourned today in order to give the prosecution time for the examination of papers found on his person. Monday, Sept. 30, was set for a hearing of the charge against Most, who was again committed to jail in default of $5,000 bail.

TO STAMP OUT ANARCHY.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—To stamp out anarchy and anarchists in Chicago a number of citizens of Austin have joined hands and formed a secret oath-bound organization which they hope will be the nucleus of a secret fraternity with branches in every city throughout the United States. Today incorporation papers were issued for it at Springfield. The name of the new organization is the "Republic." Its organization will include one grand lodge and a number of subordinate lodges.

WILL ORGANIZE A TEAM.

Students of the Fort Wayne College of Medicine are at work upon the organization of a foot ball team and expect after some practice to "clean up" about every other team in the city. There are some splendid athletes among the ranks of the medics and they will at once go into training under the guidance of a competent coach.

George L. Sherbondy, formerly of this city, was united in marriage Tuesday, Sept. 24, to Miss Edna McGee, at Moberly, Mo. Miss McGee was stenographer for a prominent firm in Moberly, where the young people will reside.

A DOCTOR'S EXPERIENCE.

"Strange as it may seem," remarked a physician, who has practiced in a small place for nearly 25 years, "three-fourths of my practice is amongst the farmers living within a radius of 12 miles of this town. Farmers ought to be the healthiest people on earth, but as a matter of fact, there is somebody sick in their families most of the time. The trouble is, they eat too much. Their stomachs become clogged, biliousness and headache follow, then they send for me."

Town people over-eat too, but for reasons easily explained, they do not eat as much as a farmer and his family do. A great many people imagine they have heart disease, malaria and aggravated stomach trouble, when as a matter of fact it is their stomach. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and Herb Laxative Compound taken as directed makes healthy stomachs. It heads off indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness, sick headache and constipation and expensive doctor bills. It is sold by most druggists in 50c and $1.00 bottles. Ask for it. AN ANNOUNCEMENT.

Lieutenant Wood was then dismissed, and as he was leaving the court room Mr. Hanna took occasion to say:

"I will make an announcement while we are waiting. There has been introduced into the court a question of the correctness or the identity of a certain very important dispatch sent by the Harvard May 27th, from off Santiago, by the commanding officer of the flying squadron. It appears that in the process of translation from the commander-in-chief to the department some changes in the language of that dispatch occurred. I do not desire at this moment to interrupt the proceedings by any discussion of that point, but I shall merely make the announcement here that we do intend to enter into that matter very fully and completely; that is to say, as fully and as completely as the court may desire, before we leave it."

Lieut. John Hood, who, during the war, commanded the Hawk, was the next witness. He said that on May 23 he had delivered dispatches from Admiral Sampson to Admiral Schley, when the latter was off Cienfuegos.

He related that he had been called on board the New York—Admiral Sampson's flagship— on May 21st, when the officers on board were preparing dispatches. He spoke of the presence of Admiral Sampson.

MR. RAYNOR OBJECTS.

Mr. Raynor objected to the introduction of conversation or verbal orders, saying that the orders would speak for themselves and must necessarily supercede any verbal instructions.

The question was argued at some length by Mr. Raynor and Captain Lemley. In closing his response, the judge advocate said:

"An objection of this character is almost equivalent to withdrawing the request for an investigation. He has asked to have the judgment of his brother officers in this matter. Let us have it, and don't put technical obstacles in the way of having the investigation."

Mr. Raynor responded briefly, as follows:

"I only desire to state that while this is our investigation, these are your specifications under the precept. We asked for this investigation and, instead of letting us give the precept under which we would like to have the inquiry take place, you form a precept of your own. Here is an applicant who asks for a court of inquiry under specifications framed by others and not by himself."

THE OBJECTION SUSTAINED.

The court retired to consider the objection, remaining out longer than on any previous occasion. Admiral Dewey read the court's decision, as follows:

"The court sustains the objection of counsel so far as relates to conversations that took place on board the New York, but this ruling does not apply to any verbal orders which the commander-in-chief directed witness to convey to Commodore Schley."

Replying to a question put in accordance with this decision, the witness said that his instructions were contained in the memorandum handed him to be delivered to Admiral Schley, which was read to him.

IDENTIFIED THE ORDERS.

The witness then read dispatch No. 8 from Sampson to Schley of May 21 telling the latter that the Spanish squadron was probably at Santiago. He also read the Brooklyn's receipt memorandum showing that this dispatch as well as the accompanying memorandum had been received at 8:15 a. m., May 23. The witness identified these as the orders he had carried. He also said that he had carried two other envelopes, one containing orders from the department and the other a memorandum which had not been read to him.

He said he had arrived off Cienfuegos at 7 a. m., May 23, and had gone aboard the Brooklyn for the purpose of delivering the dispatches.

In response to a request from the judge advocate, Lieutenant Hood related the conversation he had had with Admiral Schley after delivering the orders, saying that he (the witness) had told the admiral that it was Admiral Sampson's wish that the flying squadron should proceed immediately to Santiago as his information was very positive. His statement was as follows:

WHAT SCHLEY SAID.

"Commodore Schley read the dispatches and then turning to me said: "Admiral Sampson wishes me to go to Santiago. I cannot do it.' I told Commodore Schley that the admiral certainly expected the squadron to leave the instant I arrived. Commodore Schley then said, in nearly these words:

"'I am not at all satisfied that the Spaniards are not here in Cienfuegos. Beside, my ships all want coal, that the Massachusetts, Texas and the Brooklyn wanted so many tons of coal, and that the day before Captain Sampson had sent him down the Iowa with only half her coal supply, so that she could not get anywhere; that it was useless to send ships down there only half filled with coal.'

"I told Commodore Schley that I had passed a collier conveyed by a gunboat only a little before daylight that morning, and it would certainly be there with at least four or five thousand tons of coal within two or three hours. He referred again to his belief of the Spaniards being in Cienfuegos and stated that he had heard some firing about forty miles from port, which he took to be a welcome to the Spanish squadron; he had also seen some smoke which he conceived to be the Spanish squadron and he believed they were there.

SAMPSON HAD NO DOUBT.

"I said to Commodore Schley that from the information, which the admiral considered as definite, he had no doubt but that the Spanish squadron was at Santiago.

"Commodore Schley then said to me: 'Captain Sampson does not understand. He is not on the spot and cannot judge.' I also informed Commodore Schley that he certainly expected the squadron to leave immediately and that I had verbal orders from the commander-in-chief which did not appear in my written orders to remain with the Hawk alone at Cienfuegos after the squadron had left and conduct a blockade for a day or two or as long as my coal supply lasted."

"Describe the commodore's manner upon this occasion," said Captain Lemley.

SCHLEY MUCH PERPLEXED.

The commodore was sitting in his chair all the time I was talking to him, very quietly. He seemed to be very much perplexed at what to do."

"Do you remember whether there was anything said about communicating with the insurgents?"

"There was something said by me."

"In the commodore's presence?"

"No; chief of staff on deck. The commodore was in the cabin."

"Can you state whether or not during the time you were in Cienfuegos with the Hawk any effort was made to communicate with the insurgent Cubans?"

"There was not."

The witness then testified that the steamer Adula in passing had reported to the Brooklyn that a cable report had been received at Kingston on May 19 saying that the Spanish squadron was in the harbor at Santiago. Admiral Schley's report of this occurrence was also read as was his statement discrediting the information because he then believed the squadron to be in Cienfuegos harbor. All the reports have heretofore been published. Mr. Raynor began his cross-examination a few minutes before 1 oclock and had not proceeded far when the court took a recess for lunch.

When the court began its afternoon session Mr. Raynor continued his cross-examination of Lieutenant Hood.

MEMORY NOT CLEAR.

The latter said his recollection was that he had delivered his dispatches to Commodore Schley in his (Schley's) cabin, but it might be that he had handed them to Lieutenant Wells and had walked down to the cabin with him. He thought there was no one in the cabin when the conversation between himself and the commodore had taken place.

Mr. Raynor was proceeding to question the witness concerning his conversation with Admiral Sampson, when Admiral Schley leaned over and warned him that this conversation had been ruled out.

Mr. Raynor then changed his line of questioning.

A QUESTION OF ORDERS.

He said: "I want to ask you whether in this conversation with Commodore Schley upon this occasion he did not tell you that Admiral Sampson had instructed him before he left Santiago to satisfy himself that the Spanish fleet was not at Cienfuegos?"

The reply was: "I gathered from his conversation that he had that in some of the dispatches which were written previously to the dispatch I carried to him, which was of a considerably later date and therefore, of course, annulled all the others."

"But this dispatch you carried gave him that discretion?"

"That was not the latest dispatch whose contents I knew."

Mr. Raynor questioned the witness concerning the presence of the Spanish fleet at Santiago and attempted to read a quotaion from a magazine article, alleged to have been written by Admiral Sampson, to sustain his point that the Admiral had reached the fleet and remained at Santiago only one day.

HAD WRITTEN HIMSELF.

Mr. Hanna objected to the introduction of the article as testimony.

He said, among other things: "I have written magazine articles myself for prominent gentlemen whose names were signed to them."

He said, however, that he did not doubt that the article was Admiral Sampson's.

The question was ultimately withdrawn for the time being.

Captain Lemley then asked: "Was not your understanding that the Adula in the communication with the Brooklyn led the officers of the Brooklyn to believe that the Spanish fleet had arrived in Santiago one day and come out of the harbor the next day? Was not that the impression left it on your mind?"

The reply was: "The impression made on my mind was no impression whatever It is my recollection that at that date I knew the fleet was in Santiago."

CAPTAIN M'CALLA HEARD.

Lieutenant Hood was then excused and Captain Bowman McCalla, who commanded the Marblehead during the Spanish war, called.

He said that he had first come into contact with the flying squadron on May 19, 1898. He was then proceeding from the south coast of Cuba to Key West and met the squadron on its way to Cuba.

He had not been asked to come aboard for the purpose of making a report.

Captain McCalla said that upon reaching Key West he had informed Captain Chadwick, Admiral Sampson's chief of staff, of the secret code he had arranged with the Cuban insurgents, but that he had not given it to any one else.

Captain McCalla told of his return to Cienfuegos on the morning of May 24th.

TOLD OF SPANISH FLEET.

He had carried dispatches to Admiral Schley and had then told him of the arrangement to communicate with the Cubans and of his information that the Spanish fleet was in the harbor of Santiago.

He said that Schley had then assented to his going ashore. He also told of his report to Schley and had then for the first time seen the instructions to the commodore.

The commodore had told him that he had found difficulty in coaling, but that he felt that if he returned to Key West he would be court-martialed.

McCalla said he had advised him to go to Santiago, even if he did not stay there.

AUDITOR MEYER'S SHORTAGE AGAIN GROWS.

HE CANCELED A MORTGAGE

VICTOR CAVALIER COMES IN WITH THE PROOF.

CANCELLATION IS RECORDED

COUNTY OR BONDSMEN MUST STAND THE LOSS.

Eight hundred dollars additional shortage in the auditor's office came to light today.

This afternoon Victor Cavalier, of Arcola, presented himself at the county auditor's office and exhibited a receipt for $800, executed by William Meyer, jr., as auditor, for money received in full to cancel a mortgage of $800 on property of the said Cavalier, borrowed from the common fund. Mr. Cavalier had more than the auditor's receipt—he had the mortgage duly and legally cancelled in his possession, and the books in the recorder's office corroborate the cancellation. The receipt which Mr. Cavalier holds is a receipt from the auditor that he held the treasurer's receipt for the amount named, but the treasurer never issued such a receipt. Mr. Cavalier called at the court house June 19, of the present year, to pay off the $800 mortgage, but when he called he found the treasurer's office closed. He found Auditor Meyer and explained his errand. Mr. Meyer said he could take care of the matter for him, would see that the mortgage was canceled and gave him his receipt. Five days later Mr. Meyer had the mortgage canceled and returned it to Mr. Cavalier. The commissioners say that Mr. Meyer's bondsmen are clearly liable and there is no doubt but that either the bondsmen or the county will have to lose the money. Mr. Cavalier has placed the matter in the hands of J. B. Harper for adjustment.

No account of this shortage appears in Expert Crane's report for the reason there was no means of ascertaining it until Mr. Cavalier came in.

AN ERROR IN FIGURES.

After The Sentinel went to press yesterday the clerks in the auditor's office discovered a slight discrepancy in the figures of Expert Crane, which was in Auditor Meyer's favor and which reduces the discrepancy between his accounts and his returns from $5,206.04 to $4,985.04. The mistake in the figures arose in this wise. Edward Monnier, who held a loan from the school fund of $400 came in and asked to have it increased to $600. There was accrued interest amounting to $12.60 which still stands in the mortgage, but the auditor gave an order for $200, the difference on the face of the two mortgages on the treasurer. It was then found that an interest charge of $24 had been omitted in the charges against Meyer and another charge of $167.60 had been neglected to be credited to his account. Adding the debits and credits and taking the difference left a balance in Meyer's favor of an even $221, which reduced his deficit from $5,206.04, where it was placed yesterday, to $4,985.04, where it stands today.

IN THE JUSTICES' COURTS.

The case filed against Ezra Perry for selling liquor without a license remains in statu quo. Perry when he was in business sold booze at the corner of Main and Calhoun streets, a place that has been under the protection of the prosecutor for many months. The case will scarcely ever be tried.

Justice Bullerman will have a sensational case in a day or two. The warrant for the arrest has been issued, but the party has not yet been found.

The embezzlement proceedings commenced against Montford W. Fay in France's court Thursday have been practically settled. As intimated in Thursday Sentinel the question was one of accounts more than of misdemeanor.

Rheumatism

Rheumatic pains are the cries of protest and distress from tortured muscles, aching joints and excited nerves. The blood has been poisoned by the accumulation of waste matter in the system, and can no longer supply the pure and health sustaining food they require. The whole system feels the effect of this acid poison; and not until the blood has been purified and brought back to a healthy condition will the aches and pains cease.

Mrs. James Kell, of 707 Ninth street, N. E., Washington, D. C., writes as follows: "A few months ago I had an attack of Sciatic Rheumatism in its worst form. The pain was so intense that I became completely prostrated. The attack was an unusually severe one, and my condition was regarded as being very dangerous. I was attended by one of the most able doctors in Washington, who is also a member of the faculty of a leading medical college here. He told me to continue his prescriptions and I would get well. After having it filled twelve times without receiving the slightest benefit, I declined to continue his treatment any longer. Having heard of S. S. S. (Swift's Specific) recommended for Rheumatism, I decided, almost in despair however, to give the medicine a trial, and after I had taken a few bottles I was able to hobble around on crutches, and very soon thereafter had no use for them at all. S. S. S. having cured me sound and well. All the distressing pains have left me, my appetite has returned, and I am happy to be again restored to perfect health.

SSS the great vegetable purifier and tonic, is the ideal remedy in all rheumatic troubles. There are no opiates or minerals in it to disturb the digestion and lead to ruinous habits.

We have prepared a special book on Rheumatism which every sufferer from this painful disease should read. It is the most complete and interesting book of the kind in existence. It will be sent free to any one desiring it. Write our physicians fully and freely about your case. We make no charge for medical advice.

CYCLIST IS INJURED.

A young lady riding a wheel came into collision with a heavy truck of A. H. Perfect & Co., driven by a man named Figel, at the corner of Calhoun and Railroad streets this morning. The young lady was thrown to the pavement and one of her ankles was pinioned beneath the rim of the bicycle as the truck wheel passed over it. The unfortunate young lady was assisted to the Beverforden drug store, and soon revived sufficiently to be taken to her home by friends, who were summoned by telephone. Her injuries are not believed to be severe. She declined to give her name.

CAUSES SENSATION IN ARMY.

Columbia, S. C., Sept., 27.—A sensation in social and military circles has been created by the announcement that the engagement of Captain William P. Crawford and Miss Douglas of Chester had been broken on the eve of their marriage and that on the petition of influential citizens of Chester the adjucant general has recommended that the commission of Captain Crawford as a lieutenant in the regular army be held up pending an investigation of the officer's conduct.

Captain Crawford was among the first men to volunteer for the Spanish war. His record was excellent. Captain Crawford is young and handsome and very clever. While at home he is the editor of the Chester Lantern. The young lady is very beautiful and a member of an old and cultured family. No reason is given except in a note written by the captain to the lady's mother saying: "I no longer love your daughter."

"Whereas, William McKinley, president of the United States, was shot by the assassin Czolgosz on September 6th, 1901, and departed this life to that bourne from whence no traveler returns on the 14th day of September, 1901; therefore, be it,

"Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the widow of our late president in her sad bereavement and trust that her strength will ever remain strong to bear her cross and the cruel blow.

"Resolved, That we recognize that in the death of our president, a loss has been sustained by the nation of a good, noble and conscientious executive and an example for the youth of America.

FIRE LADDIES WIN.

The firemen and the policemen engaged in a ball game at League park yesterday afternoon, before a crowd of about 300 curious spectators, and when the smoke cleared away, it was found that the cops had been beaten. the firemen say 72 to 3, but it is thought that the score was about 34 to 11 in their favor. The firemen simply played all around their opponents, ran the bases like leaguers and batted like fiends. Officer Collins hadn't played base ball very often and after swatting one behind the foul lines, he started for third, amid the encouraging shouts of the populace. Coling, Borgman and Langard were the stars on the police nine, but the others were simply awful. The police may challenge the firemen for a game of croquet or authors in the near future.

BASE BALL NOTES.

Manager Armour has signed Shortstop Thoney, of Wheeling, for next year's Cleveland team.

Yerkes pitched his second game for St. Louis yesterday and lost. The ex-Marion twirler was touched up for fifteen hits.

Jack Smith, who has been playing on the Defiance, Ohio, team, has returned home, the team having disbanded for the season.

Pitcher George Mullin has been loaned to Cincinnati by Brooklyn and will finish the season with the Reds. Brooklyn has signed forty-two men to select a team from next year.

SAYS KITCHENER STEPS OUT.

London, Sept. 27.—The Daily News says:

"There was a rumor at the military clubs last evening that Lord Kitchener, in consequence of disagreements with War Secretary Broderick, had resigned the post of commander-in-chief in South Africa. It is stated with some show of circumstantiality that the government had urged him to remain, that he had refused and that an illustrious personage had been asked to urge him to reconsider his determination. It is tolerably certain that there are circumstances connected with the recruiting and other matters that have caused some sort of disagreement between Lord Kitchener and the authorities at home. It is known, moreover, that Lord Kitchener is anxious to enter upon his important duties as commander-in-chief in India."

TAR AWAITS EMMA GOLDMAN.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Emma Goldman will receive a warm reception upon her return to Rochester should she carry out her plans and come here, and if the present ideas are carried out she will be treated to a coat of tar and feathers before she reaches the parental roof at 175 Joseph avenue. John F. Flint, a leading shoe merchant of this city, with salesrooms at 90 West Main street, made use of the following advertisement yesterday: Wanted—500 able-bodied men, with lots of tar and feathers, to care for Emma Goldman upon her arrival here from Chicago. The Goldman house is under police protection.

LABOR MEETING IS ENDED

STATE FEDERATION ELECTS OFFICERS AT BRAZIL.

E. A. Perkins, of Indianapolis, is Chosen President—To Meet in Evansville in 1902.

Brazil, Ind., Sept. 27.—The seventeenth annual convention of the State Federation of Labor adjourned yesterday afternoon after completing its business session. Evansville was chosen as the place for next year's convention. Officers were elected as follows:

President—Edgar A. Perkins, typographical union, Indianapolis.

First Vice President—George Derrick, bakers', Muncie.

Second Vice President—G. W. Lackey, mine workers', Dugger.

Third Vice President—Mrs. D. F. Kennedy, Womans' Label league, Indianapolis.

Secretary-Treasurer—J. W. Peters, typographical union, South Bend.

South Bend, Linton and Clinton were also candidates for next year's convention.

Resolutions were presented condemning Governor Durbin for seeking to use the factory and mine inspector's offices to further political ends. Another resolution pledged the federation to use its best efforts toward the elimination of politics from the state institutions.

W. J. BRYAN ON ANARCHY.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 27.—W. J. Bryan is opposed to any limitation upon the freedom of speech which he says has been suggested as a cure for anarchy. Mr. Bryan believes the evils of restriction are greater than the evils of freedom, and further declares that the death of President McKinley cannot be traced to anything said or written against him. The warfare, he says, must be against anarchy, not against freedom of speech. Anarchy, he insists, is a European product and thrives most where there is the least freedom of speech and of the press.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Trade was again dull today at the opening of the board of trade, with December corn a shade lower to unchanged at 58⅝c to 58¾c on fair weather and indifferent cables. The first hour saw no change in the opening quotations, though there seemed to be plenty offered both for December and May delivery. Receipts were 356 cars.

Corn broke on heavy liquidation and with little support December sold to 57⅞c and closed weak, ¾c lower at 58c.

December wheat opened a shade down at 70⅜c on cables, big receipts in the northwest and fine weather. Lacking outside speculation trade was very dull, and December eased off to 70¼c. Local receipts were 92 cars, 5 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 904 cars, making a total for the three points of 996 cars, against 1,276 last week and 656 a year ago. Argentine shipments were 104,000 bushels for the week, compared with 240,000 a year ago.

Wheat weakened with the break in corn and December touched 70c, the low point for the crop, closing weak, ¼@⅜c lower, at 70⅛c.

Oats had the same dull market as yesterday, December opening ⅛c lower at 36⅛c and remaining at that quotation during the first hour. Receipts were 210 cars.

Provisions were quiet but had something of a better tone in sympathy with a higher hog market. There was a fair demand for both near and distant futures and January pork opened a shade higher at $16.05 and sold to $16.12½. January lard opened 5c higher at $9.42½ and sold to $9.47½, and January ribs opened 2½c up at $8.30 and touched $8.35.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Sept. 27.—Prices of most stocks advanced at the opening, the Vanderbilts rising from 1 to 2 points. Amalgamated Copper and Anaconda were conspicuous exceptions. The latter sagged from the opening and the former, after feeble fluctuations, commenced to decline on light dealings.

Active stocks declined despite the increasing strength of the Vanderbilt group. Sugar lost a point again and railroad stocks generally fell below yesterday's close, Missouri Pacific losing ⅞. Near 11 o'clock heavy short covering carried the Westerns, Pacifics and Southwestern railroads and the United States Steel stocks above last night. The extreme gain in the Vanderbilts reached 5½ in Lake Erie and Western preferred, 4⅞ in Peoria and Eastern, 4 in Canada Southern and Lake Erie and Western, 3¼ in New York, Chicago and St. Louis second preferred, 2⅞ in New York, Chicago and St. Louis common and New York Central and 1¼ in C., C., C. & St. L. Other substantial gains were 3 in Delaware and Hudson and St. Louis and Southwestern and 2¾ in Keokuk and Des Moines.

The Copper stocks were quiet and irregular. Amalgamated lost ⅞ and rallied feebly, while Anaconda gave way ¼ and came up strongly.

Room traders took profits on the rise and Manhattan and some of the railroads reacted a point or more, including the Vanderbilts. Amalgamated Copper was depressed to 90 ex-dividend and Anaconda lost ½. Trading then became dull.

Bonds were irregular.

New York Central rose again to 160⅝, and Pennsylvania advanced 2. Manhattan crossed 124. There were advances of 1 to 2½ in a number of obscure stocks, including St. Paul preferred, Great Northern preferred, Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg, Iowa Central common and preferred, Evansville and Terre Haute, and Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie, common and preferred. The recovery was general.

Room traders joined in the buying of various usually dormant stocks and they were advanced in many cases from 3 to 7½ points, principally those selling under 50. In the active quarter prices rose steadily but very slowly, Amalgamated reaching 92¼ and Anaconda more than recovering its earlier decline.

Slight profit-taking caused a momentary hesitation, but the advance was resumed with confidence, led by a 2⅞ point gain in Rock Island. The Grangers, Pacifics, Manhattan and other prominent stocks made the best prices of the day. Amalgamated Copper recovered its dividend and an additional fraction. The closing was quiet and about steady at only slight concessions.

THE MONEY MARKET.

New York, Sept. 27.—Money on call nominally at 3½ per cent; prime mercantile paper, 5@5½ per cent; sterling exchange steady with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.85¼@4.85½ for demand and at $4.83@4.83¼ for 60 days; posted rates, $4.84@4.86½; commercial bills, $4.82¼@4.83¼; silver certificates unquoted; bar silver, 58½c; Mexican dollars, 45½c.

THE BOND MARKET.

Woman's Life Saved.

A rather curious case came to our attention of a woman in Detroit whose life was saved "several times," so she says, by Ath-lo-pho-ros. Once is a good record, but "several times" makes her a warm advocate of Ath-lo-pho-ros whenever rheumatism is mentioned—you can write to her if you want—Kate Nauman, 590 12th St., Detroit, Mich. She says Ath-lo-pho-ros is the best and only medicine that will cure rheumatism, "because it has cured me," and she says "the swelling and intense pain ceased within five minutes after the first dose." She further says, "the disease has no more dread for me as long as Ath-lo-pho-ros can be obtained." What it has done for her it will do for anyone.

BRILL SURPRISED

GENIAL RAILROADER AN UNEXPECTED HOST.

CONDUCTORS GIVE HIM PIPE

IN RETURN ENJOY HOSPITALITY OF BRILL HOME.

WOOD GETS OUT A NEW LAMP

DESIGNED FOR LIGHTING SUBWAYS IN CITIES.

Hrry Brill, formerly yardmaster of the Pittsburg at this point, now a conductor on a western road, is home for a week's visit with his family. Last evening he was the victim of a surprise party, perpetrated by some of his friends, all conductors, and their wives. There were seventeen couples in the party and they dropped into the Brill home in a body, taking the premises by storm. After the greetings and some friendly chat the party engaged in a game of progressive pedro, the first prizes going to Mrs. Thomas H. Coleman and Gottleib M. Sauer, and the consolation prizes to Mrs. C. Cox and Frank I. Stump. The games were followed by a luncheon, at which Conductor McArdle distinguished himself as usual. During the evening the conductors presented Mr. Brill with a handsome pipe, the donors being represented in an oratorical way by Thomas McArdle in a manner that added luster to his reputation as a speaker. Mr. Brill will probably move his family to the west in the spring.

TO INCREASE BOILER PLANT.

The Pennsylvania company is preparing to increase the capacity of its boiler plant at the power station at the car shops. Orders were placed with the Bass Foundry and Machine company yesterday for a 72-inch by 20-foot high pressure tubular boiler, with an estimated capacity of 200-horse power, and as soon as the order can be filled the boiler will be placed at the side of the three 200-horse power boilers now in service and which were built by the Bass people, also, about two years ago. When the new power plant was planned provision was made for an increase in boiler facilities to any extent necessary.

BOOKED ENGINE ORDER.

The Sharon Sheet Steel company, of Sharon, Pa., placed an order with the Bass Foundry and Machine company yesterday for a 500-horse power Corliss engine, with shaft and balance wheel complete. The order also includes two fourteen-foot rope transmission wheels, grooved for eight ropes each. The Bass company today shipped two boilers to the Tipton Electric Light company, of Tipton, Ind.

GODFREY'S HUSKING BEE.

An old-fashioned husking bee was held at the suburban home of James Godfrey, out on Miller street, last night. There were eighteen participants, all of the male gender, and the affair was just as full of enjoyment to the guests as it was helpful to the host. One of the young men remarked that the party only lacked two things, the red ear and the pretty girl feature, to make it perfect in an enjoyable way. But this young man was an exception, for the others of the party declare they had a better time than they could have had had there been a hundred pretty girls present. Mr. Godfrey has charge of the railway pumping station at the St. Mary's river.

NEW ELECTRIC LAMPS.

General Manager J. J. Wood, of the Fort Wayne Electric company, has gotten out a new enclosed arc lamp, which is far ahead of anything in that line on the market. He took a photograph of the new lamp with him to Schenectady, to submit it to examination by the General Electric officials. Mr. Wood has also gotten out a new subway electric headlight which has reflectors for casting light in both directions and has already received an order from the Rapid Transit Subway Construction company, of New York, for twenty of the lamps. This order is in the way of an experiment and is likely to be followed by another order of far greater importance. These lamps will be used in the Harlem subway. Mr. Wood left for Schenectady last night.

ED BABCOCK HEARD FROM.

O. L. Babcock is in receipt of a letter from his brother, E. B. Babcock, who left this city less than two weeks ago for California. Ed writes that he has purchased ten acres of land near Corning, Cal., and that carpenters are already engaged in building a house for him and his family. He will engage in the cultivation of almonds and grapes and has confidence in the success of the undertaking. Mr. Babcock is located in a very rich section, his land being on the opposite bank of the river from the famous Leland Stanford estate. Mr. and Mrs. Babcock and their children are well and are pleased with their situation in the west. Mr. Babcock was employed as a car inspector by the Findlay road when he resided in this city.

THE BIG ENGINE ARRIVES.

The big E-2 passenger engine mentioned and described in these columns a week ago, arrived at the Pittsburg roundhouse last night and was the attraction for a big crowd of visitors, mostly engineers, at that place this morning. This engine is designed for service on the Fort Wayne road and she left with train 39 at 12:15 o'clock this afternoon upon her first trip out on the western end of the line. Engineer John Mooney presided at the throttle and Fireman Jacob W. Schaufer officiated at the firebox, and some of the officials rode in the cab also.

Mills; left halfback, Frank Mills; right halfback, Evans; fullback, Stover. The captain of the eleven is J. B. Mills. MR. HAYS IS SILENT.

San Francisco, Sept. 27.—President Charles M. Hays, of the Southern Pacific company, through his secretary, Mr. Ingraham, refused to discuss his plans for the future, and declined to discuss the possibility of his assuming the management of the Boston and Maine road. Mr. Ingraham intimated, however, that President Hays would doubtless issue a statement of his plans in the near future.

MR. BORNER OUT ON THE ROAD.

He left the city on a special train at 7:20, accompanied by Supt. J. B. McKim, Trainmaster J. F. Patterson, Division Operator J. G. Jennings, Star Union Agent Harry Quicksell and Mr. Downs, Mr. Borner's assistant.

Destroyed His paper Money and Wept as He Did It—The News of the Police.

Francis Brown was a refreshing sort of an individual. Francis is a young fellow who says he lives at New Haven and he yesterday accumulated a lachrymose jag. It was one of the perrennial flowing kind that never fail in hot weather. He started to cry when he started to get drunk and he kept it up until he started for jail to do a fifteen day turn. He was observed at the Wabash depot this morning tearing up United States currency with a recklessness that indicated long acquaintance with large wads of money. He had a large roll composed of small bills and these bills he tore into bits and cast them to the four or five winds of the earth. Just as he got through his most extravagant scattering stunt the patrol wagon burst in on the stage. Francis cried a little harder than usual and told the officers that his mother died while he was still unweaned and that his father died before he was seven years old; since his sad bereavements he has had nothing to cheer him but an occasional paper-tearing expedition. At police court the judge listened patiently to his tale, watched his pumps work to their full capacity of forty-nine revolutions per minute and then told him he had better go to jail and be a good boy for at least sixteen days.

Mike Sullivan was reported on the police clerk's slate last night as being an ordinary "stiff drunk." When a man gets stiff drunk there is usually nothing doing, but in Mike's case he will be doing time at the county jail for eleven days, if Judge Louttit's edict holds good.

James Davis, a gentleman of color, who came to town on the front end of a car contrary to the printed rules of the Pennsylvania company was sent over the Rialto for eleven days for train climbing.

People who ride bicycles in the neighborhood of 63 East Main street are clamoring that a dog which does business in that neighborhood be shot.

There was a lively scrap on Calhoun street, between Main and Columbia streets, last night. Before the police arrived the combatants had separated and no arrests were made.

The proprietors of the Rocker Washer company, on Erie street, complain of the depredations of boys who insist on throwing stones through the factory windows after dark.

A wheel picked up on Clinton street last night awaits an owner at the police station.

A VALUABLE ACQUISITION.

Gotham (quizzically)—I don't suppose you have any mosquitoes in Jersey now that you have gotten after them with crude oil?

Jerseyite (promptly)—That's right. Mosquitoes are so blame scarce now that we are preserving the body of one we found last week to be sent to New York and placed in the Museum of Natural History along with Jumbo.—Brooklyn Eagle.

A NEW TERROR.

"How did that inter-college base ball game come out this afternoon?"

"It wasn't a game. It was a slaughter. The other fellows beat us 39 to 0."

"Great Scott! What was the reason of that?"

"They rung in that new Australian student on us in the pitcher's box. He used to be a boomerang thrower."—Chicago Tribune.

The longest bridge in the world is the Lion bridge, near Sangang, in China. It extends five and one-quarter miles over an arm of the Yellow sea, and is supported by 300 huge stone arches. The roadway is seventy feet above the water, and is enclosed in an iron network.

CAPTAIN BARR SAYS COLUMBIA IS ALL RIGHT.

AS GOOD AS SHE SHOULD BE

THE DEFENDER LIES IDLE IN THE BAY TODAY.

CAPT. SYCAMORE PROTESTS

THINKS CAPT. BARR JOCKEYED HIM UNFAIRLY.

New York, Sept. 27.—The cup defender Columbia and the challenger Shamrock II. are lying quietly at their moorings in the bay at Sandy Hook this morning. The former flew the stars and stripes, but the Shamrock had no flags at either her masthead or taffrail. There was no intention on the part of the American boat to send her out for a spin today. Captain Barr had his crew at work overhauling some of the light sails. He said he thought the Columbia was going as fast as she ever did and that when a breeze comes she will give a good account of herself.

"She does not need any more spins just now," he said. "She is in very good shape."

Everything was quiet on board the Shamrock.

Shortly before 11 o'clock Sir Thomas Lipton, with Mr. Jameson and Mr. Watson, went on board the Shamrock. Before leaving the Erin Sir Thomas said to an Associated Press representative:

"While yesterday's race was not at all a fair test of the Shamrock's speed, I was very well satisfied with what she did. What we want is a good, strong breeze, and then I'm sure the Shamrock will give a good account of herself."

SYCAMORE'S PROTEST.

From an authentic source it was learned today that there is a very strong protest on the part of Captain Sycamore and those in charge of the Shamrock at what they term crowding of the Shamrock at the start yesterday by Captain Barr. "If he is going to continue those tactics there will be serious trouble," said the person quoted. "What he did yesterday would not be tolerated for an instant in a race in British waters. He must not expect us to stand it, and we won't. Our relations with the New York Yacht club and with the principals in this event have been so extremely pleasant that it is to be hoped one man's action shall not be permitted to mar them."

WAS NO RACE.

Yesterday's contest from a spectacular point of view and as to results was keenly disappointing to the thousands who went out to see it and returned disgusted.

At the end of five and one-half hours, the prescribed time, the race was officially declared off and the yachts were towed back to their berths inside Sandy Hook.

When the gun aboard the committee boat was fired to call attention to the signal declaring the race off the American yacht was still five miles from the finish line. The Englishman was well astern of her, the experts estimating her distance behind the Columbia at over three-quarters of a mile.

LIPTON IS HOPEFUL.

London, Sept. 27.—Sir Thomas Lipton has cabled to his friends here, "Am very hopeful," but the feeling is not reflected by public opinion, which foresees defeat for the Shamrock II. in her races with the Columbia for the America's cup. The afternoon newspapers derive scant comfort from the account of yesterday's contest. The St. James Gazette points out that, in spite of all suggestions that the conditions prevent accurate judgment of comparative merits of the two yachts, "the plain fact stands out that under a condition of weather which was the same to both, the American boat got a bit nearer the winning line than our own." The Pall Mall Gazette is practically alone in thinking that the American experts are easily satisfied if they are already convinced that the Columbia is the better boat. The paper's comment is probably based on the conclusion of its own correspondent's long account of the race, which commences: "The Columbia did much to shatter the Lipton hope yesterday," and concludes: "The day's sailing did nothing to suggest that the Shamrock will not win in a good breeze. I think she will."

MAY DROP CONTROVERSY.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 27.—The controversy between President T. J. Shaffer, of the Amalgamated association, and President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, and John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, may be dropped. The official communication from Presidents Gompers and Mitchell was received by President Shaffer today. He said he can afford to ignore it, but has not decided what action he will take. He has asked President Simon Burns to represent him if the dispute is to be investigated and Mr. Burns has agreed to do so. The details have not been arranged, but Mr. Shaffer has been advised to drop the matter.

FIRST RIDE ON INTERURBAN

FORT WAYNE PARTY GOES TO HUNTINGTON TOMORROW.

City Officials and Business Men Will Be the Guests of the Management on Informal Trip.

Tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock a party of Fort Wayne gentlemen, comprising city officials, business men, members of the Commercial club and newspaper men, will start upon the initial trip over the Fort Wayne and Southwestern interurban line.

The party will be the guests of the railroad management, and will leave the Taylor street bridge in two of the new interurban cars—"Indiana" and "Kentucky"—propelled by a steam locomotive owned by the company. At Roanoke a small party of business men from that town will board the cars.

The trip is entirely informal and is made solely to give the people an idea of the work that has actually been done on the line. General Manager Nelson said this morning that the trip would be repeated as soon as the electric equipment was installed.

At Huntington the excursionists will be met by the mayor, city council and members of the Huntingtonian club, and after an inspection of the power station of the Southwestern company the visitors will be taken for a drive over the Lime City. Two weeks from tomorrow it is expected to bring a similar party of Huntington people to Fort Wayne.

AN INSANE MOTHER'S DEED

DROWNS HER THREE CHILDREN AND HERSELF.

Mrs. Curtiss, Near Cleveland, Puts Her Three Little Ones to Death in Cistern.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 27.—Mrs. Percy Curtiss, wife of a farmer living near Northfield, Ohio, a few miles south of this city, early today threw her three children in a well and then plunged into the water herself. All of the children and the mother were drowned. The father was temporarily absent from home when the tragedy occurred. The children were aged 3, 5 and 7, respectively. It is supposed that Mrs. Curtiss was mentally deranged when she committed the deed. She was discharged from the insane asylum at Massillon a few weeks ago.

YOUNG FARMER MURDERED.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Sept. 27.—The dead body of Samuel Conners, a young farmer, was found in Haw creek today, at a lonely point to which he apparently had been enticed and then murdered. He had been missing since Tuesday.

FAMINE IN RUSSIA.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 27.—The minister of the interior has proclaimed that famine exists in the Khvalynsky and Knmyshinsky districts of the government of Saratoff, in the Menzelinsky and Belebeefsky districts of the government of Oufa, in the Starobelsky and Izumsky districts of the government of Kharkoff, in the Laishefsky, Mamadyshsky, Tetushsky, Spassky, Swiajsky and Chistopolsky districts of the government of Kasan and in the Simbirsky district of the government of Simbirsk.

Mrs. W. L. Clark, of Golden Lake, Ark., who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. E. Short, of 116 Boone street, left today for her home.

CZOLGOSZ COLLAPSES WHEN HE REACHES PRISON.

GUARDS HAD TO CARRY HIM

SHRIEKED AND GROANED WITH ABJECT FEAR.

NOW SORRY FOR HIS CRIME

FEELS ESPECIALLY FOR MRS. M'KINLEY.

Auburn, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Czolgosz, President McKinley's murderer, in custody of Sheriff Caldwell, of Erie county, and twenty-one deputies, arrived in Auburn at 3:15 a. m. The prison is only about fifty yards from the depot.

Awaiting the arrival of the train there was a crowd of about 200 people. Either for fear of the crowd, which was very demonstrative, or from sight of the prison, Czolgosz's legs gave out and two deputy sheriffs were compelled to practically carry the man into the prison.

Inside the gate his condition became worse, and he was dragged up the stairs and into the main hall. He was placed in a sitting posture on the bench while the handcuffs were being removed, but he fell over and moaned and groaned, evincing the most abject terror. As soon as the handcuffs were unlocked the man was drugged into the principal keeper's office.

SHRIEKED IN TERROR.

As in the case of all prisoners, the officers immediately proceeded to strip him and put on a new suit of clothes. During the operation Czolgosz cried and yelled, making the prison corridors echo with evidence of his terror. The prison physician, Dr. John Gerin, examined the man and ordered his removal to the cell in the condemned row, which he will occupy until he is taken to the electric chair. The doctor declared that the man was suffering from fright and terror, but said that he was shamming to some extent.

The collapse of the murderer was a surprise to every one. En route from Buffalo he showed no indication of breaking down. He ate heartily of sandwiches and smoked cigars when not eating.

SORRY FOR MRS. M'KINLEY.

He talked some and expressed his regret for his crime. He said:

"I am especially sorry for Mrs. McKinley."

He reiterated his former statement that he had had no accomplices and declared that he never heard of the man under arrest in St. Louis who claimed to have tied the handkerchief over his hand, concealing the pistol with which the president was shot. He says the handkerchief was not tied. He went behind the Temple of Music, arranged the handkerchief so as to hide the weapon and then took his place in the crowd. To Jailor Mitchell he sent this message to his father:

"Tell him I'm sorry I left such a bad name for him."

IN NORMAL CONDITION.

Czolgosz was in normal condition this afternoon and seemed to have fully recovered from his collapse.

There are five cells for condemned men in the prison, and Czolgosz was placed in the only vacant cell, so all are now occupied. Two keepers are constantly on guard in the room, which is separate from the main prison, but to guard against an attempt on Czolgosz's part to commit suicide two more guards have been added, and one will constantly sit in front of Czolgosz's cell and will have a key, so that any attempt at self-destruction may be easily frustrated.

SHAMROCKS AT MUNCIE.

The Shamrocks will leave for Muncie at 5 o'clock Sunday morning via the Lake Erie and Western. They will play the strong Muncie independent team in the afternoon. The Shamrocks defeated the Muncies in the game earlier in the season.

THE PRESIDENT'S WILL.

Canton, O., Sept. 27.—The will of President McKinley probably will be filed late this afternoon. No executors are named. Mrs. McKinley, it is now understood, will recommend Judge Day and Secretary to the President Cortelyou to administer the estate.

MRS. PULLMAN DIVORCED.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Judge Bishop today granted a decree of divorce to Mrs. Lynn Pullman from George M. Pullman, son of the late palace car magnate. Alimony was fixed at $1,000 a year and the plaintiff granted permission to apply for an increase in the alimony and for fees later. Mr. Pullman, who is now in California, let the suit go by default.

Partridge bank, of Ovid, which failed several months ago with liabilities of $750,000. He pleaded not guilty and was released in $2,200 bail, his wife going on his bond.

WERE SEEKING A TREASURE

MIDNIGHT EXCAVATIONS ON ST. MARY'S AVENUE.

Mysterious Party Made Two Visits to the Locality and It Has Aroused Curiosity.

Residents along St. Mary's avenue are indulging in considerable mental speculation concerning happenings along that thoroughfare on two evenings this week and an air of impregnable mystery surrounds the whole circumstance. It is believed unknown parties were searching for a treasure supposed to be buried there, but whether or not anything was realized from the explorations is only conjecture.

It is stated that one night during the present week, precisely at midnight, two or three parties came up the avenue armed with shovels and at a point near the north end began making an excavation at the side of the street. They were observed by a family living in the neighborhood, but no further investigation was made and the mysterious visitors soon left. For some unaccountable reason no exploration of the place was made during the day following, and at midnight another party, larger in number than the one of the previous night, put in an appearance. There was more digging, and they, also, finally departed as mysteriously as had their predecessors. No later developments have shed any light upon the work of the nocturnal explorers and the matter seems to be enveloped in mystery.

CONTRACT FOR NEW PUBLIC LIBRARY BUILDING.

Trustee Hamilton Says School Trustees are Doing All in Their Power to Hurry Work Along.

Regarding the progress toward the erection of the new Fort Wayne public library, made possible by the Carnegie gift of $75,000, made months ago, President Hamilton, of the school board, who left the city on a business trip today, called up The Sentinel to say that the trustees are doing everything in their power to push the library work along.

Mr. Hamilton was quite confident that the contract for the building could be let in two weeks. "The specifications are in the hands of the printer," said he, "and the architect says the plans are ready. The work of removing the old building will be performed by the contractor for the new structure."

ADMIRAL SAMPSON'S COUNSEL CANNOT APPEAR.

IN SCHLEY INQUIRY COURT

SAMPSON'S REQUEST READ AND COURT DECIDES.

WISE DID NOT TELL SCHLEY

THAT CERVERA'S FLEET WAS IN SANTIAGO BAY.

Washington, Sept. 27.—The Schley court of inquiry this afternoon decided that counsel for Admiral William T. Sampson could not appear and take part in the proceedings as counsel.

At half past 2 o'clock this afternoon Judge Advocate Lemley read a letter from Admiral Sampson, dated at Lake Sunapee, N. H., September 2, asking that Messrs. Stayton and Campbell be allowed to represent him in the inquiry. Admirals Dewey, Benham and Ramsay, composing the court, after a conference, decided that they could not appear.

The testimony today again covered the point of Admiral Schley's knowledge of the Spanish fleet's presence at Santiago. Captain Wise stated for the third time in his testimony that he did not inform Admiral Schley that the Spanish fleet was there and did not ask Captain Sigsbee to do so.

DEWEY IS PROMPT.

As usual Admiral Dewey lost no time today in bringing the court of inquiry to order, and as usual the counsel on both sides of the case were in their seats and prepared to proceed promptly with the business before the court.

Indeed Captain Lemley and Mr. Hanna, the navy department's representatives, had been in the court room for an hour or more preparing the details for the day's work. They consider the present stage of the proceedings an important one, requiring the most careful attention. Captain Lemley estimates that he will be able to conclude the presentation of the government side of the case by the close of next week if no unforeseen contingency arises to cause delay. He says he will have about fifteen or twenty more witnesses to introduce.

THERE FOR SAMPSON.

One of the most regular attendants upon the court is Mr. William H. Stayton, the attorney, who is understood to be prepared to represent other naval officers than Admiral Schley.

He sits outside the rail and does not in any way participate in the proceedings. He said yesterday that so long as Admiral Sampson was kept out of the case he would have nothing to say.

WISE DID NOT TELL SCHLEY.

Today's session began with the recall of Captain Wise to make verbal changes in the official copy of his testimony. His altered his previous statement concerning the order of the navy department of May 20, 1898, in which he was directed to "inform every vessel off Santiago that the flying squadron is off Cienfuegos," saying that he desired to correct his response to the court's question as to why this order was not carried out, by stating that it had been carried out.

"The flying squadron was ordered to proceed with all possible dispatch," he said, and added: "I did not desire to inform the commodore of the flying squadron of his own movements. The order was to inform commanders of the movements of the flying squadron."

The court then asked: "Did you direct Captain Sigsbee to give Commodore Schley the information contained in the dispatch from the navy department regarding the whereabouts of the Spanish squadron?"

"I did not."

Lieutenant Spencer S. Wood, who commanded the dispatch boat Dupont during the Spanish war, was then called and continued his testimony, begun yesterday.

HARBER WAS MISTAKEN.

Mr. Raynor resumed his cross-examination. The witness said that while off Cienfuegos he had been on picket duty two miles from shore on the night of May 22 and had been instructed to signal the squadron with two red lights in case the enemy's torpedo boats came out of the harbor.

Mr. Raynor then read from the testimony of Captain Harber, of the Texas, saying that there had been no picket vessels within the line of the fleet off Cienfuegos. The witness said that the statement was wrong.

Captain Lemley said Captain Harber had testified that there were no pickets "so far as he could recall," to which Mr. Raynor responded: "We are not impeaching Captain Harber's veracity. We are impeaching his recollection, not his integrity."

Mr. Raynor—"Captain Harber has stated that there were no picket boats at Cienfuegos. He was wrong, was he not?"

"He was," replied the witness.

"As I have seen since the commander-in-chief also reported that the Dupont was not there. I have written the department that I was there. Other people forgot about it too."

After further examination upon the same point Lieutenant Wood was asked what steps had been taken by the flying squadron to ascertain if the Spanish fleet was inside the harbor at Santiago. He replied:

"None that I know of."

"Was there any effort to destroy the shore batteries there?"

The witness replied that he knew of none. He said, replying to another question by Mr. Raynor, that vessels in the inside harbor could

REV. H. C. JAUS IS CALLED TO DECATUR.

Popular Pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran Church Received Call Today—May Accept.

Rev. H. C. Jaus, the popular pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran church west of the city, today received a unanimous call to become pastor of the largest Lutheran church at Decatur, Ind. The call was somewhat in the nature of a surprise for Rev. Jaus, and he was not prepared today to state whether or not he would accept, but will give the call full consideration, and will probably lay the matter before his congregation on Sunday.

Rev. Jaus is a minister of more than usual ability, and is very popular, not only with his own congregation, but with a large circle of friends in the city and county. He has filled Lutheran pulpits in this city on numberous occasions and is in constant demand at Lutheran gatherings in all parts of the county.

Bethlehem church, of which he is pastor, was organized a few years ago, its members being those of Emanuel congregation residing west of Lindenwood cemetery. Under Rev. Jaus' capable administration the church has grown and prospered and the congregation now numbers several hundred.

Rev. Jaus was educated at the Lutheran seminary in Springfield, Ill., and for a number of years he was engaged in mission work in Texas and other points in the south, and later in the Indiana gas belt, becoming pastor of Bethlehem church soon after it was organized.

MR. CORTELYOU IN CANTON.

Canton, Ohio, Sept. 27.—Secretary to the President Cortelyou reached the city shortly after 10 o'clock this morning. Dr. Rixey met him at the station with the McKinley carriage and they went direct to the McKinley residence. While there has been no material change in the condition of Mrs. McKinley since the secretary was last here, she has at least held her own and has shown more interest in her personal affairs. Her condition is such that Mr. Cortelyou can go over with her the matters which brought him here.

FIERCE STORM IN OMAHA.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 27.—The heaviest storm of rain and hail for years struck Omaha and vicinity early today. Many telephone and electric light poles were blown down and street cars were blocked in several parts of the town. Police Sergeants Dempsey and Welsenburg and an electric light man were badly shocked by coming in contact with live wires, but all will recover. Down town streets were like small rivers and wooden sidewalks were washed into the street in a dozen places. The hail broke skylights and stripped trees of their foliage. There was an almost continuous succession of lightning flashes, which prostrated electric systems during the storm. In Council Bluffs the Northwestern yards were under two feet of water at one time and down town cellars were flooded.

A case of scarlet fever is reported at 289 Harrison street.

EXPRESSED JOY AT ASSAULT ON THE PRESIDENT.

ANARCHIST EDITOR IN LIMBO

SPRING VALLEY (ILL.) RED IS IN SERIOUS PLIGHT.

Marion, Ind., Sept. 27.—Jerry Kuder, Peter Locke and James Spears, three veterans of the soldiers home here, who have been in the guard house of that institution since the night of the shooting of President McKinley for having expressed pleasure over the work of Czolgosz and hoped that the president would die, have been sentenced by the board of managers of the home to be publicly degraded and dishonorably discharged from that institution tomorrow.

ANARCHIST EDITOR IN LIMBO.

Spring Valley, Ill., Sept. 27.—John Ciancibilla, the proprietor of L'Aurore, the anarchist paper published here, which glowed with an account of the assassination of President McKinley, was arrested here today by United States Marshal St. Clair, of Streator. Postoffice Inspector B. F. Gilbert was here a few days ago and worked up the case. He then returned to Chicago and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Ciancibilla. The latter will be arraigned before United States Commissioner H. H. Dycus this afternoon on a charge of violating the postal laws by publishing lottery notices. There is said to be no law under which he can be prosecuted for the anarchistic language used in his paper, but the authorities state that the other charge will be pressed vigorously.

THE HERR MOST CASE.

New York, Sept. 27.—Hearing of the case against John Most, arrested Sunday night at Corona, L. I., for violation of the section of the penal code relating to unlawful assemblage, was again adjourned today in order to give the prosecution time for the examination of papers found on his person. Monday, Sept. 30, was set for a hearing of the charge against Most, who was again committed to jail in default of $5,000 bail.

Messrs. S. C. Powell, George Siebold, Mr. M. A. Jordan, Walter J. Gould, J. H. Rietmeier, Judge Lary, M. A. Mahoney, E. J. Deckman, Sol Brandt and J. H. TO STAMP OUT ANARCHY.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—To stamp out anarchy and anarchists in Chicago a number of citizens of Austin have joined hands and formed a secret oath-bound organization which they hope will be the nucleus of a secret fraternity with branches in every city throughout the United States. Today incorporation papers were issued for it at Springfield. The name of the new organization is the "Republic." Its organization will include one grand lodge and a number of subordinate lodges.

WILL ORGANIZE A TEAM.

Students of the Fort Wayne College of Medicine are at work upon the organization of a foot ball team and expect after some practice to "clean up" about every other team in the city. There are some splendid athletes among the ranks of the medics and they will at once go into training under the guidance of a competent coach.

A DOCTOR'S EXPERIENCE.

"Strange as it may seem," remarked a physician, who has practiced in a small place for nearly 25 years, "three-fourths of my practice is amongst the farmers living within a radius of 12 miles of this town. Farmers ought to be the healthiest people on earth, but as a matter of fact, there is somebody sick in their families most of the time. The trouble is, they eat too much. Their stomachs become clogged, biliousness and headache follow, then they send for me."
Town people over-eat too, but for reasons easily explained, they do not eat as much as a farmer and his family do. A great many people imagine they have heart disease, malaria and aggravated stomach trouble, when as a matter of fact it is their stomach. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and Herb Laxative Compound taken as directed makes healthy stomachs. It heads off indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness, sick headache and constipation and expensive doctor bills. It is sold by most druggists in 50c and $1.00 bottles. Ask for it. If he hasn't it, we will be glad to send you a trial bottle and a valuable little book on stomach troubles free. Pepsin Syrup Company, Monticello, Ill., U. S. A.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT.

Lieutenant Wood was then dismissed, and as he was leaving the court room Mr. Hanna took occasion to say:

"I will make an announcement while we are waiting. There has been introduced into the court a question of the correctness or the identity of a certain very important dispatch sent by the Harvard May 27th, from off Santiago, by the commanding officer of the flying squadron. It appears that in the process of translation from the commander-in-chief to the department some changes in the language of that dispatch occurred. I do not desire at this moment to interrupt the proceedings by any discussion of that point, but I shall merely make the announcement here that we do intend to enter into that matter very fully and completely; that is to say, as fully and as completely as the court may desire, before we leave it."

Lieut. John Hood, who, during the war, commanded the Hawk, was the next witness. He said that on May 23 he had delivered dispatches from Admiral Sampson to Admiral Schley, when the latter was off Cienfuegos.

He related that he had been called on board the New York—Admiral Sampson's flagship—on May 21st, when the officers on board were preparing dispatches. He spoke of the presence of Admiral Sampson.

MR. RAYNOR OBJECTS.

Mr. Raynor objected to the introduction of conversation or verbal orders, saying that the orders would speak for themselves and must necessarily supercede any verbal instructions.

The question was argued at some length by Mr. Raynor and Captain Lemley. In closing his response, the judge advocate said:

"An objection of this character is almost equivalent to withdrawing the request for an investigation. He has asked to have the judgment of his brother officers in this matter. Let us have it, and don't put technical obstacles in the way of having the investigation."

Mr. Rayuor responded briefly, as follows:

"I only desire to state that while this is our investigation, these are your specifications under the precept. We asked for this investigation and, instead of letting us give the precept under which we would like to have the inquiry take place, you form a precept of your own. Here is an applicant who asks for a court of inquiry under specifications framed by others and not by himself."

THE OBJECTION SUSTAINED.

The court retired to consider the objection, remaining out longer than on any previous occasion. Admiral Dewey read the court's decision, as follows:

"The court sustains the objection of counsel so far as relates to conversations that took place on board the New York, but this ruling does not apply to any verbal orders which the commander-in-chief directed witness to convey to Commodore Schley."

Replying to a question put in accordance with this decision, the witness said that his instructions were contained in the memorandum handed him to be delivered to Admiral Schley, which was read to him.

IDENTIFIED THE ORDERS.

The witness then read dispatch No. 8 from Sampson to Schley of May 21 telling the latter that the Spanish squadron was probably at Santiago. He also read the Brooklyn's receipt memorandum showing that this dispatch as well as the accompanying memorandum had been received at 8:15 a. m., May 23. The witness identified these as the orders he had carried. He also said that he had carried two other envelopes, one containing orders from the department and the other a memorandum which had not been read to him.

He said he had arrived off Cienfuegos at 7 a. m., May 23, and had gone aboard the Brooklyn for the purpose of delivering the dispatches.

In response to a request from the judge advocate, Lieutenant Hood related the conversation he had had with Admiral Schley after delivering the orders, saying that he (the witness) had told the admiral that it was Admiral Sampson's wish that the flying squadron should proceed immediately to Santiago as his information was very positive. His statement was as follows:

WHAT SCHLEY SAID.

"Commodore Schley read the dispatches and then turning to me said: 'Admiral Sampson wishes me to go to Santiago. I cannot do it.' I told Commodore Schley that the admiral certainly expected the squadron to leave the instant I arrived. Commodore Schley then said, in nearly these words:

"'I am not at all satisfied that the Spaniards are not here in Cienfuegos. Beside, my ships all want coal, that the Massachusetts, Texas and the Brooklyn wanted so many tons of coal, and that the day before Captain Sampson had sent him down the Iowa with only half her coal supply, so that she could not get anywhere; that it was useless to send ships down there only half filled with coal.'

"I told Commodore Schley that I had passed a collier conveyed by a gunboat only a little before daylight that morning, and it would certainly be there with at least four or five thousand tons of coal within two or three hours. He referred again to his belief of the Spaniards being in Cienfuegos and stated that he had heard some firing about forty miles from port, which he took to be a welcome to the Spanish squadron; he had also seen some smoke which he conceived to be the Spanish squadron and he believed they were there.

SAMPSON HAD NO DOUBT.

"I said to Commodore Schley that from the information, which the admiral considered as definite, he had no doubt but that the Spanish squadron was at Santiago.

"Commodore Schley then said to me: 'Captain Sampson does not understand. He is not on the spot and cannot judge.' I also informed Commodore Schley that he certainly expected the squadron to leave immediately and that I had verbal orders from the commander-in-chief which did not appear in my written orders to remain with the Hawk alone at Cienfuegos after the squadron had left and conduct a blockade for a day or two or as long as my coal supply lasted."

"Describe the commodore's manner upon this occasion," said Captain Lemley.

SCHLEY MUCH PERPLEXED.

The commodore was sitting in his chair all the time I was talking to him, very quietly. He seemed to be very much perplexed at what to do."

"Do you remember whether there was anything said about communicating with the insurgents?"

"There was something said by me."

"In the commodore's presence?"

"No; chief of staff on deck. The commodore was in the cabin."

"Can you state whether or not during the time you were in Cienfuegos with the Hawk any effort was made to communicate with the insurgent Cubans?"

"There was not."

The witness then testified that the steamer Adula in passing had reported to the Brooklyn that a cable report had been received at Kingston on May 19 saying that the Spanish squadron was in the harbor at Santiago. Admiral Schley's report of this occurrence was also read as was his statement discrediting the information because he then believed the squadron to be in Cienfuegos harbor. All the reports have heretofore been published. Mr. Raynor began his cross-examination a few minutes before 1 o'clock and had not proceeded far when the court took a recess for lunch.

When the court began its afternoon session Mr. Raynor continued his cross-examination of Lieutenant Hood.

MEMORY NOT CLEAR.

The latter said his recollection was that he had delivered his dispatches to Commodore Schley in his (Schley's) cabin, but it might be that he had handed them to Lieutenant Wells and had walked down to the cabin with him. He thought there was no one in the cabin when the conversation between himself and the commodore had taken place.

Mr. Raynor was proceeding to question the witness concerning his conversation with Admiral Sampson, when Admiral Schley leaned over and warned him that this conversation had been ruled out.

Mr. Raynor then changed his line of questioning.

A QUESTION OF ORDERS.

He said: "I want to ask you whether in this conversation with Commodore Schley upon this occasion he did not tell you that Admiral Sampson had instructed him before he left Santiago to satisfy himself that the Spanish fleet was not at Cienfuegos?"

The reply was: "I gathered from his conversation that he had that in some of the dispatches which were written previously to the dispatch I carried to him, which was of a considerably later date and therefore, of course, annulled all the others."

"But this dispatch you carried gave him that discretion?"

"That was not the latest dispatch whose contents I knew."

Mr. Raynor questioned the witness concerning the presence of the Spanish fleet at Santiago and attempted to read a quotaion from a magazine article, alleged to have been written by Admiral Sampson, to sustain his point that the Admiral had reached the fleet and remained at Santiago only one day.

HAD WRITTEN HIMSELF.

Mr. Hanna objected to the introduction of the article as testimony.

He said, among other things: "I have written magazine articles myself for prominent gentlemen whose names were signed to them."

He said, however, that he did not doubt that the article was Admiral Sampson's.

The question was ultimately withdrawn for the time being.

Captain Lemley then asked: "Was not your understanding that the Adula in the communication with the Brooklyn led the officers of the Brooklyn to believe that the Spanish fleet had arrived in Santiago one day and come out of the harbor the next day? Was not that the impression left it on your mind?"

The reply was: "The impression made on my mind was no impression whatever. It is my recollection that at that date I knew the fleet was in Santiago."

CAPTAIN M'CALLA HEARD.

Lieutenant Hood was then excused and Captain Bowman McCalla, who commanded the Marblehead during the Spanish war, called.

He said that he had first come into contact with the flying squadron on May 19, 1898. He was then proceeding from the south coast of Cuba to Key West and met the squadron on its way to Cuba.

He had not been asked to come aboard for the purpose of making a report.

Captain McCalla said that upon reaching Key West he had informed Captain Chadwick, Admiral Sampson's chief of staff, of the secret code he had arranged with the Cuban insurgents, but that he had not given it to any one else.

Captain McCalla told of his return to Cienfuegos on the morning of May 24th.

TOLD OF SPANISH FLEET.

He had carried dispatches to Admiral Schley and had then told him of the arrangement to communicate with the Cubans and of his information that the Spanish fleet was in the harbor of Santiago.

He said that Schley had then assented to his going ashore. He also told of his report to Schley and had then for the first time seen the instructions to the commodore.

The commodore had told him that he had found difficulty in coaling, but that he felt that if he returned to Key West he would be court-martialed.

McCalla said he had advised him to go to Santiago, even if he did not stay there.

AUDITOR MEYER'S SHORTAGE AGAIN GROWS.

HE CANCELED A MORTGAGE

VICTOR CAVALIER COMES IN WITH THE PROOF.

CANCELLATION IS RECORDED

COUNTY OR BONDSMEN MUST STAND THE LOSS.

Eight hundred dollars additional shortage in the auditor's office came to light today.

This afternoon Victor Cavalier, of Arcola, presented himself at the county auditor's office and exhibited a receipt for $800, executed by William Meyer, jr., as auditor, for money received in full to cancel a mortgage of $800 on property of the said Cavalier, borrowed from the common fund. Mr. Cavalier had more than the auditor's receipt—he had the mortgage duly and legally cancelled in his possession, and the books in the recorder's office corroborate the cancellation. The receipt which Mr. Cavalier holds is a receipt from the auditor that he held the treasurer's receipt for the amount named, but the treasurer never issued such a receipt. Mr. Cavalier called at the court house June 19, of the present year, to pay off the $800 mortgage, but when he called he found the treasurer's office closed. He found Auditor Meyer and explained his errand. Mr. Meyer said he could take care of the matter for him, would see that the mortgage was canceled and gave him his receipt. Five days later Mr. Meyer had the mortgage canceled and returned it to Mr. Cavalier. The commissioners say that Mr. Meyer's bondsmen are clearly liable and there is no doubt but that either the bondsmen or the county will have to lose the money. Mr. Cavalier has placed the matter in the hands of J. B. Harper for adjustment.

No account of this shortage appears in Expert Crane's report for the reason there was no means of ascertaining it until Mr. Cavalier came in.

AN ERROR IN FIGURES.

After The Sentinel went to press yesterday the clerks in the auditor's office discovered a slight discrepancy in the figures of Expert Crane, which was in Auditor Meyer's favor and which reduces the discrepancy between his accounts and his returns from $5,206.04 to $4,985.04. The mistake in the figures arose in this wise. Edward Monnier, who held a loan from the school fund of $400 came in and asked to have it increased to $600. There was accrued interest amounting to $12.60 which still stands in the mortgage, but the auditor gave an order for $200, the difference on the face of the two mortgages on the treasurer. It was then found that an interest charge of $24 had been omitted in the charges against Meyer and another charge of $167.60 had been neglected to be credited to his account. Adding the debits and credits and taking the difference left a balance in Meyer's favor of an even $221, which reduced his deficit from $5,206.04, where it was placed yesterday, to $4,985.04, where it stands today.

IN THE JUSTICES' COURTS.

The case filed against Ezra Perry for selling liquor without a license remains in statu quo. Perry when he was in business sold booze at the corner of Main and Calhoun streets, a place that has been under the protection of the prosecutor for many months. The case will scarcely ever be tried.

Justice Bullerman will have a sensational case in a day or two. The warrant for the arrest has been issued, but the party has not yet been found.

The embezzlement proceedings commenced against Montford W. Fay in France's court Thursday have been practically settled. As intimated in Thursday Sentinel the question was one of accounts more than of misdemeanor.

Rheumatism

Rheumatic pains are the cries of protest and distress from tortured muscles, aching joints and excited nerves. The blood has been poisoned by the accumulation of waste matter in the system, and can no longer supply the pure and health sustaining food they require. The whole system feels the effect of this acid poison; and not until the blood has been purified and brought back to a healthy condition will the aches and pains cease.

Mrs. James Kell, of 727 Ninth street, N. E., Washington, D. C., writes as follows: "A few months ago I had an attack of Sciatic Rheumatism in its worst form. The pain was so intense that I became completely prostrated. The attack was an unusually severe one, and my condition was regarded as being very dangerous. I was attended by one of the most able doctors in Washington, who is also a member of the faculty of a leading medical college here. He told me to continue his prescriptions and I would get well. After having it filled twelve times without receiving the slightest benefit, I decided to continue his treatment any longer. Having heard of S. S. S. (Swift's Specific) recommended for Rheumatism, I decided, almost in despair however, to give the medicine a trial, and after I had taken a few bottles I was able to hobble around on crutches, and very soon thereafter had no use for them at all. S. S. S. having cured me sound and well. All the distressing pains have left me, my appetite has returned, and I am happy to be again restored to perfect health.

SSS the great vegetable purifier and tonic, is the ideal remedy in all rheumatic troubles. There are no opiates or minerals in it to disturb the digestion and lead to ruinous habits.

We have prepared a special book on Rheumatism which every sufferer from this painful disease should read. It is the most complete and interesting book of the kind in existence. It will be sent free to any one desiring it. Write our physicians fully and freely about your case. We make no charge for medical advice.

CYCLIST IS INJURED.

A young lady riding a wheel came into collision with a heavy truck of A. H. Perfect & Co., driven by a man named Figel, at the corner of Calhoun and Railroad streets this morning. The young lady was thrown to the pavement and one of her ankles was pinioned beneath the rim of the bicycle as the truck wheel passed over it. The unfortunate young lady was assisted to the Beverforden drug store, and soon revived sufficiently to be taken to her home by friends, who were summoned by telephone. Her injuries are not believed to be severe. She declined to give her name.

CAUSES SENSATION IN ARMY.

Columbia, S. C., Sept., 27.—A sensation in social and military circles has been created by the announcement that the engagement of Captain William P. Crawford and Miss Douglas of Chester had been broken on the eve of their marriage and that on the petition of influential citizens of Chester the adjutant general has recommended that the commission of Captain Crawford as a lieutenant in the regular army be held up pending an investigation of the officer's conduct.

Captain Crawford was among the first men to volunteer for the Spanish war. His record was excellent. Captain Crawford is young and handsome and very clever. While at home he is the editor of the Chester Lantern. The young lady is very beautiful and a member of an old and cultured family. No reason is given except in a note written by the captain to the lady's mother saying: "I no longer love your daughter."

The Renown of the Great Author and Physician, Dr. A. W. Chase, is Accented by Fort Wayne People.

Its by the words of the people that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills have come into such active demand. The announcements for this medicine are not dependent on the testimony of people so far away that they cannot be authenticated. Its home evidence that convinces because easily substantiated. Its the simple statement of things done and told in the words of the relieved.

Mrs. J. M. Kress, of No. 143 Broadway, Fort Wayne Ind., says: "I think Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are just splendid. I was badly in need of a nerve tonic, as I was depressed, weak and nervous. I got some of the medicine at Meyer Bros. & Co.'s drug store, No. 14 Calhoun street, and they built me right up, gave me strength, energy and made the nerves good and steady. I am very much pleased with the medicine."

A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

Here's luck to the best boat in the next race and more wind to them both.

Adjutant General Corbin is soon to marry and it is safe to bet that he will not have the hardihood to undertake to be the "whole thing" in his household as he has in the army.

Those Roman geese will not hereafter have history all to themselves. A cat in a Manitou, Col., hotel discovered the house to be on fire and aroused the landlady, whereby seventeen lives were saved.

Captain Wise, the man who carried to the flying squadron the news that the Spanish fleet was in Santiago, admits that he did not impart this trifling information to the American commander. A court martial could do a fair day's work on this case.

Dispatches set forth with some circumstantiality that Lord Kitchener has resigned as British commander-in-chief in South Africa. It is surprising news. No one will believe the hero of Omdurman was up to the limit and had shot his last bolt when he issued his last surrender-or-die proclamation to the Boers. Let him take heart from one Captain General Blanco, who prosecuted much longer a typewriter campaign against greater odds in Cuba than Kitchener has encountered in South Africa. Nil desperandum, my lord of Khartoum, is as good a motto for Briton as for Boer, and writing machines of many makes drug the market.

The first race in the cup series was a fluke and determined nothing save that Captain Barr is doubtless the superior of Captain Sycamore as a sailing master. Columbia's skipper out-jockeyed Shamrock's skipper in complete fashion. So far as wind was concerned it was a day of flukes and the defender's advantages were in no sense decisive of her superiority over her rival. But the race so far as it progressed clearly demonstrated that the gallant old defender of 1899 is worthy to dispute the British challenge again and that the hopes of Americans could have no safer reliance than on the craft that bore the stars and stripes to a glorious and decisive victory two years ago. More auspicious winds may show in the next race that the cup is in danger, but no one need be in fear. As it now looks Columbia's chances are to be considered better than her rival's.

The death in Washington yesterday of John George Nicolay recalls this man who was once well known, but had almost passed out of the public mind. Mr. Nicolay was the private secretary of President Lincoln and was one of the closest personal friends of the martyred president. After the death of Mr. Lincoln he was United States consul to Paris and later was editor of the Chicago Republican. Mr. Nicolay was a well-known writer and had contributed much that was biographical of Mr. Lincoln to literature. He is perhaps best known, however, as the collaborator of Hon. John G. Hay, now secretary of state, in the preparation of the "Life of Abraham Lincoln," first published serially in the Century Magazine, beginning in 1886, and afterward in book form. Mr. Nicolay was born in Bavaria in 1832 and came with his father to the United States six years later. He began life on his own account as a printer's apprentice on the Pike County Press at Pittsfield, Ill., and before of age was editor and proprietor of the paper. He went to Springfield in 1857 as assistant to the secretary of state and when Mr. Lincoln was nominated for the presidency in 1860 became his secretary of state, remaining in close relation with him until he was assassinated.

KING RECEIVES MR. CHOATE

AMBASSADOR GIVEN PERSONAL AUDIENCE.

Assures His Majesty American People Appreciate His Sympathy in Death of President.

London, Sept. 27.—King Edward received the United States ambassador, Mr. Choate, in audience at Marlborough house today and personally renewed to him his expressions of deep sympathy and condolence with Mrs. McKinley and the American people, already expressed in his telegrams at the time of President McKinley's assassination.

Mr. Choate left with the king a letter, as follows:

"I desire to express in person my sincere appreciation of your majesty's constant sympathy with Mrs. McKinley and the American people in their distress and bereavement, and the profound thanks of my countrymen for this unfailing interest."

The audience was strictly private. No one else was present in the India room, where it was held.

A representative of the Associated Press learns that the king was most cordial in his remarks, expressing warm regard for America and Americans.

His majesty received the news of the attack on President McKinley at the second station from Kiel, and was deeply affected, members of the king's entourage say, and personally wrote a message to Mrs. McKinley.

"AND THERE WAS LIGHT."

(This Morning's Journal-Gazette.)

The Sentinel last evening blamed the school trustees for seeming delay in the construction of the public library for which Mr. Carnegie donated $75,000. Mr. Hamilton, the president of the board, declares that every possible haste was made, and although they urged the work personally and officially, it is only within a few days that Architect Grindle completed the plans for the building. Now the blue print is being prepared and the specifications are being printed, so that the board, Mr. Hamilton says, has not lost a moment. The stone contract, as soon as awarded, was forwarded to the quarry for the signature of the firm, and the board expects to be able to receive bids for the library building within two weeks. They do not propose to raze the old building, but will include that in the general contract and expect credit for the material from the successful bidder. President Hamilton points out that the board removed the books from the old building two months ago, but they had to sit down and wait for the plans and specifications.

SOCIALISTS ISSUE ADDRESS

DEFINING THEIR ATTITUDE AND CENSURING ANARCHY.

Fort Wayne Members of the Party Complete Organization and Elect Officers.

Fort Wayne socialists to the number of about 100 met Thursday evening at the court house assembly room, reorganized in conformity with the new socialist constitution adopted at the national convention at Indianapolis, and listened to a number of speakers who supported the doctrines of the party. The officers of the party organization chosen were:

President—Henry Cohen.
Secretary—F. H. Rolf.
Financial Secretary—F. O'Brien.
Literary Agent—J. Brunskill.
General Organizer—M. Wefel.
Ward Organizers—First ward, Hawes; Second ward, O'Rourke; Third ward, Hollister; Fourth ward, none selected; Fifth ward, Henry Cohen; Sixth ward, Smith; Seventh ward, Ketcham; Eighth ward, Woods; Ninth ward, Ferguson; Tenth ward, Martin.

ISSUE AN ADDRESS.

The following address was issued by the meeting:

Comrades: In order that the public may know of a certainty of the attitude of the socialist in regard to the heartless and brutal murder of our late lamented president, William McKinley, it devolves upon us while here assembled to present our position in the following resolutions:

Whereas, Our universally beloved president, William McKinley, was most heartlessly assassinated while at the Buffalo exposition by one Leon Czolgosz, an anarchist, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the socialists assembled here denote this calamity which has befallen our country and its people in the loss of our president; be it further

Resolved, That we, socialists, utterly condemn this fiendish act and the doctrines that are responsible for such inhuman crimes against society. Socialism is here as a protest against murder, bloodshed and rapine. It is here as a protest against every form of anarchy, now so prevalent over our beloved country. Too long has society suffered at the hands of those that disregard law and order.

The anarchist, with his doctrine, "The propaganda of the deed," has been responsible, to a considerable extent, for the slow advancement made by the workers of the old world. To advocate violence, such as some of their leaders are guilty of, has been the cause of more suffering in Russia and Italy than any other reason, along side of the worship of the almighty dollar. The doctrine of violence is unreasonable, inhuman and dangerous.

In the name of revolution the anarchist serves the cause of reaction. In the name of morality they approve of the most immoral acts; in the name of individual liberty, they trample under foot all the rights of their fellowmen.

Crimes of this character have no excuse for existence in our country. For the first time in the history of the world the oppressed class has the same fundamental right as the ruling class, namely, the right of suffrage. Now, instead of making use of this right, these fellows who call themselves anarchists, everywhere preach against it.

The socialist has nothing in common with anarchy or its advocates. The socialist is a militantist, the anarchist an individualist. The socialist wants to increase the functions of government while the anarchist is opposed to all law and government. A socialist form of government would be a stronger government than any hitherto yet existing. The anarchistic conception of society consists in no government, no laws regulating human conduct or action.

Socialism means the collective ownership of all means of production and distribution. That means co-operation; not competition, not strife nor the individual rights of exploitation. It means human brotherhood. Its foundation is the golden rule, "Do unto others as you would that others should do unto you."

Its aim is to build a grander and nobler government, not by force, but by intelligent use of the ballot. It teaches that we shall all work for one another instead of each individual for himself.

This, then, being a plain and concise statement of our attitude toward anarchy, it devolves upon us to resolve within ourselves henceforth to go out among our fellow workers and teach them the principles of socialism, the only real emancipating factor now in existence, and to teach them to right the wrongs of our society at the ballot box.

Instead of socialist republic use co-operative commonwealth.

The next meeting will be held in Vordermark's hall October 9.

MOVE TO FORT WAYNE.

(Huntington Democrat.)

Today was the last day of sawing by the Perrine-Armstrong company in its Huntington plant. All timber was worked out today and the plant will be turned over to the new proprietor, W. E. Bartlett, next Tuesday. After this the company will begin business at its new plant in Fort Wayne, many of the present employes going with the company to that city.

BIDS WERE VERY CLOSE.

The contract for the erection of the new public library at Wabash has been let to John Hipskind & Son, of that city, for $17,795, exclusive of the heating system. The bid of J. M. Henry, of Fort Wayne, was $17,786, but the board deemed it its duty to favor the home contractor. On hot water heating Mr. Henry's bid was $650 additional, while Hipskind & Sons' proposal was $873.

LETTER FROM MISS STONE.

Constantinople, Thursday, Sept. 26.—Rev. Mr. Haskill, a missionary at Samakov (Bulgaria) has received a letter from Miss Helen H. Stone, the American missionary who was carried off by brigands September 5, in the district of Djumahala. It does not reveal the whereabouts of Miss Stone, but says she is in good health and has been well treated by the brigands, especially in the earlier stages of the abduction. Latterly, owing to vigorous pursuit of Turkish troops, she had been subjected to privations. Miss Stone adds that the brigands demand a ransom of 25,000 Turkish pounds. The opinion is expressed in Constantinople that the Bulgaria-Macedonian committee was actively concerned in the abduction of the missionary.

A FRANCHISE IS REPORTED

HARRISON STREET FOR THE SOUTHWESTERN.

Council Receives for Approval the Contract Entered Into By the Board of Works.

The city council last Tuesday night took a recess until last night for the ostensible purpose of receiving the report of the committee of the whole on tax levy and appropriations as fixed at that meeting. Other matters, however, were brought up, and some of considerable importance.

The Sentinel last evening intimated that it was possible that the board of works might present a franchise agreed upon for admission of the Southwestern road to the center of the city by way of Chicago street and Harrison street.

The board of works, the city attorney and the representatives of the Southwestern Traction company had a prolonged session yesterday afternoon and agreed to a franchise and route, which was formally presented to the council last night for ratification.

It presents a change in the original route of the same company from the intersection of Fairfield avenue and Brooklyn avenue (Chicago street). From that point the line leaves the original plan and diverges east on Brooklyn avenue along the south thirteen feet of that thoroughfare to Webster street, where it turns north to Baker street, where it turns east and continues until Harrison street is reached.

At Harrison street the line turns north and continues to the south line of the Nickel Plate right-of-way. A franchise is also provided for east on Columbia street, from Harrison to Calhoun, and a spur on Pearl street is also provided for. The other terms of the franchise do not differ from those originally conceded to Townsend, Reed & Co., but the company agrees to surrender its right to place tracks on Fulton, Brackenridge and Pearl streets, as originally provided for.

The company also agrees to protect such part of the Baker street sewer as it traverses and agrees to reimburse property owners who paid for pavements abutting on the line of the road on Columbia, Baker and Harrison streets in such sums as the company would have been liable for had the said paving been done after their right-of-way had been established on such streets. The franchise further provided that all work in the city shall be completed by May 1.

The whole matter, after some argument, was referred to the committee on franchises and contracts, and it is expected that the matter will be reported on, taken up and acted upon within a week. There will be remonstrances galore, but the probabilities are that the franchise as it now stands will go through.

OTHER BUSINESS.

The railway question being disposed of the council received the report of the committee of the whole on levy and appropriations and the ordinances reported therewith were passed as recommended and as set out in The Sentinel on Wednesday last. The full text of the taxation and appropriation ordinances appears elsewhere in this issue.

Other miscellaneous business was disposed of. An invitation to attend the reunion of the Eleventh Indiana battery was accepted; a remonstrance against granting a railway franchise on Harrison street was read and referred; the City band and John A. Scott were thanked for services performed on McKinley memorial day and Councilman Sordelet asked what had become of the order to the Fort Wayne Traction company to place its feed wires on Clinton and Barr streets under ground. There were explanations on the point by Councilmen Hench and Bauer, who said they would look the matter up. The council then adjourned.

PRESENTED A PORTRAIT.

One of the handsomest memorial portraits of President McKinley in print was today presented to the Tippecanoe club by Messrs. E. W. White, A. B. White and J. B. White, of the Fruit house. It is handsomely framed in black and is appropriately inscribed. The portrait is enclosed with a laurel wreath of embossed silver, and it will hang between the portraits of the Indiana senators. The club appreciates the gift as one of its most highly-prized possessions, which have been greatly added to during the present year. Formal acknowledgement will be made with ceremony at the next meeting of the club.

MAN CRIES HIMSELF TO DEATH.

Laporte, Ind., Sept. 27.—Caleb Harvey, an old and wealthy resident of this city, died here yesterday as the direct result of grieving over the assassination and death of President McKinley. The physicians who attended Mr. Harvey say that he literally cried himself to death. He wept for hours continuously from the afternoon the president was shot, and while in these paroxysms of grief his suffering was intense. It was found impossible to control or assuage his grief, and up to the hour of his dissolution he wailed constantly. Mr. Harvey was an ardent admirer of McKinley. The physicians consider the case without precedent in medical jurisprudence.

PAN-AMERICAN CONGRESS.

Washington, Sept. 27.—All but two of the South American republics have appointed their representatives to the Pan-American congress to be held October 21st at the City of Mexico. These two countries are Honduras and the Dominican Republic. Their representatives will be appointed before the congress meets. The delegates for the United States are as follows: Henry G. Davis, of West Virginia; William I. Buchanan, of Iowa; Volney W. Foster, of Illinois; John Barrett, of Oregon; Charles M. Pepper, of the District of Columbia.

KINDLY TAKE NOTICE that Ely's Liquid Cream Balm is of great benefit to those sufferers from nasal catarrh who cannot inhale freely through the nose, but must treat themselves by spraying. Liquid Cream Balm differs in form, but not medicinally from the Cream Balm that has stood for years at the head of remedies for catarrh. It may be used in any nasal atomizer. The price, including a spraying tube, is 75 cents. Sold by druggists and mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.

COMMUNICATION FROM BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Sept. 26, 1901.

To the Mayor and Common Council.

Gentlemen: We herewith submit to you for ratification by ordinance a contract entered into between us in behalf of the city and the Fort Wayne and Southwestern Traction company granting to the said Traction company a right of way over and along certain streets not covered by the original franchise granted to Townsend, Reed and Miller.

Respectfully,
Board of Public Works,
Per A. M. SCHMIDT, Clerk.

Referred to committee on contracts and franchises.

This agreement, made and entered into this 26th day of September, 1901, by and between the city of Fort Wayne, Allen County, Indiana (hereinafter called the city) by and through its board of public works, party of the first part, and the Fort Wayne and Southwestern Traction company, a corporation duly organized, party of the second part, witnesseth:

Whereas, The party of the first part entered into a contract with George Townsend, William S. Reed and Charles C. Miller, which contract bears date of November 27, 1900, and was duly approved by the common council of the city of Fort Wayne, by ordinance duly passed December 13, 1900, which contract is fully set forth in Ordinance Record 1, page 433, and grants unto said Townsend, Reed and Miller a franchise for the construction and operation of an electric railroad upon and over certain streets named in said contract, and under the conditions, limitations, and obligations set forth in said contract; and,

Whereas, Said George Townsend, William S. Reed and Charles C. Miller have duly assigned to the party of the second part, the Fort Wayne and Southwestern Traction company, all their right and interest in and to said contract, and said Fort Wayne and Southwestern Traction company have, by assignment aforesaid, succeeded to all the rights, privileges and obligations of said Townsend, Reed and Miller in and to said contract, a copy of which assignment is attached hereto and marked exhibit "A;" and,

Whereas, It is desired to make certain changes and additions to said contract, as are hereinafter specifically set forth; wherefore, it is agreed:

1st. That the route named in section one (1) of said contract be changed and modified to be as follows: On Taylor street from the west corporation limits of the city of Fort Wayne to Fairfield avenue; on Fairfield avenue from the south line of Taylor street extended to a point one hundred (100) feet north of the north line of the right of way of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad company; on Brooklyn avenue (formerly Chicago street) from Fairfield avenue to the west line of Harrison street; on Webster street from Brooklyn avenue to Baker street; on Baker street from the west line of Webster street to Harrison street; on Harrison street from the south line of Baker street to the south line of the right of way of the New York, Chicago and St. Louis Railroad company; on Columbia street from the west line of Harrison street to the center of Calhoun street, and to a connection with tracks of other traction companies having tracks on Calhoun street, or on Columbia street, east of center of Calhoun street. WOULD BUY CHINA'S FLEET.

Shanghai, Sept. 27.—China is favorably considering a Russian offer to purchase the Pei-Yang squadron, consisting of three fast cruisers, four torpedo boat destroyers and some third-class cruisers, the price, 5,000,000 roubles, to be deducted from the war indemnity.

AN IMPORTANT QUESTION.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 27.—An important question to be considered by the Episcopal general convention, which meets here next week, will relate to the position of the church in Hawaii. A statement written for the Chronicle by a churchman from Honolulu says: The people of Hawaii are strongly in favor of their church being placed under the jurisdiction of an American bishop and of the American church being established there. Although the church in Honolulu has selected two men to attend the general conference, General Osborne and Clive Davies, they in no sense come as deputies, but merely to further the interests of their churches as far as possible in an unofficial way. Sister Beatrice, in charge of St. Andrew's priory, Honolulu, has also come to San Francisco in the interests of her institution, which it is desired to have transferred to American control.

NOTICE.

Six per cent. interest will be charged on all unpaid intercepting sewer assessments remaining unpaid October 1, 1901.

The office of the Citizens' Trust Company will be open each evening this week for the payment of assessments. 25tf

FIRE LADDIES WIN.

The firemen and the policemen engaged in a ball game at League park yesterday afternoon, before a crowd of about 300 curious spectators, and when the smoke cleared away, it was found that the cops had been beaten. the firemen say 72 to 3, but it is thought that the score was about 34 to 11 in their favor. The firemen simply played all around their opponents, ran the bases like leaguers and batted like fiends. Officer Collins hadn't played base ball very often and after swatting one behind the foul lines, he started for third, amid the encouraging shouts of the populace. Coling, Borgman and Langard were the stars on the police nine, but the others were simply awful. The police may challenge the firemen for a game of croquet or authors in the near future.

BASE BALL NOTES.

Manager Armour has signed Shortstop Thoney, of Wheeling, for next year's Cleveland team.

Yerkes pitched his second game for St. Louis yesterday and lost. The ex-Marion twirler was touched up for fifteen hits.

Jack Smith, who has been playing on the Defiance, Ohio, team, has returned home, the team having disbanded for the season.

Pitcher George Mullin has been loaned to Cincinnati by Brooklyn and will finish the season with the Reds. Brooklyn has signed forty-two men to select a team from next year.

SAYS KITCHENER STEPS OUT.

London, Sept. 27.—The Daily News says:

"There was a rumor at the military clubs last evening that Lord Kitchener, in consequence of disagreements with War Secretary Brodrick, had resigned the post of commander-in-chief in South Africa. It is stated with some show of circumstantiality that the government had urged him to remain, that he had refused and that an illustrious personage had been asked to urge him to reconsider his determination. It is tolerably certain that there are circumstances connected with the recruiting and other matters that have caused some sort of disagreement between Lord Kitchener and the authorities at home. It is known, moreover, that Lord Kitchener is anxious to enter upon his important duties as commander-in-chief in India."

TAR AWAITS EMMA GOLDMAN.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Emma Goldman will receive a warm reception upon her return to Rochester should she carry out her plans and come here, and if the present ideas are carried out she will be treated to a coat of tar and feathers before she reaches the parental roof at 175 Joseph avenue. John F. Flint, a leading shoe merchant of this city, with salesrooms at 90 West Main street, made use of the following advertisement yesterday: Wanted—500 able-bodied men, with lots of tar and feathers, to care for Emma Goldman upon her arrival here from Chicago. The Goldman house is under police protection.

W. J. BRYAN ON ANARCHY.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 27.—W. J. Bryan is opposed to any limitation upon the freedom of speech which he says has been suggested as a cure for anarchy. Mr. Bryan believes the evils of restriction are greater than the evils of freedom, and further declares that the death of President McKinley cannot be traced to anything said or written against him. The warfare, he says, must be against anarchy, not against freedom of speech. Anarchy, he insists, is a European product and thrives most where there is the least freedom of speech and of the press.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Trade was again dull today at the opening of the board of trade, with December corn a shade lower to unchanged at 58⅜c to 58¾c on fair weather and indifferent cables. The first hour saw no change in the opening quotations, though there seemed to be plenty offered both for December and May delivery. Receipts were 356 cars.

Corn broke on heavy liquidation and with little support December sold to 57⅞c and closed weak, ¾c lower at 58c.

December wheat opened a shade down at 70⅜c on cables, big receipts in the northwest and fine weather. Lacking outside speculation trade was very dull, and December eased off to 70¼c. Local receipts were 92 cars, 5 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 904 cars, making a total for the three points of 996 cars, against 1,276 last week and 656 a year ago. Argentine shipments were 104,000 bushels for the week, compared with 240,000 a year ago.

Wheat weakened with the break in corn and December touched 70c, the low point for the crop, closing weak, ⅛@⅜c lower, at 70⅛c.

Oats had the same dull market as yesterday, December opening ⅛c lower at 36½c and remaining at that quotation during the first hour. Receipts were 210 cars.

Provisions were quiet but had something of a better tone in sympathy with a higher hog market. There was a fair demand for both near and distant futures and January pork opened a shade higher at $16.05 and sold to $16.12½. THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Sept. 27.—Prices of most stocks advanced at the opening, the Vanderbilts rising from 1 to 2 points. Amalgamated Copper and Anaconda were conspicuous exceptions. The latter sagged from the opening and the former, after feeble fluctuations, commenced to decline on light dealings.

Active stocks declined despite the increasing strength of the Vanderbilt group. Sugar lost a point again and railroad stocks generally fell below yesterday's close, Missouri Pacific losing ⅞. Near 11 o'clock heavy short covering carried the Westerns, Pacifics and Southwestern railroads and the United States Steel stocks above last night. The extreme gain in the Vanderbilts reached 5⅛ in Lake Erie and Western preferred, 4⅞ in Peoria and Eastern, 4 in Canada Southern and Lake Erie and Western, 3¼ in New York, Chicago and St. Louis second preferred, 2¾ in New York, Chicago and St. Louis common and New York Central and 1¼ in C., C., C. & St. L. Other substantial gains were 3 in Delaware and Hudson and St. Louis and Southwestern and 2¾ in Keokuk and Des Moines.

The Copper stocks were quiet and irregular. Amalgamated lost ⅞ and rallied feebly, while Anaconda gave way ¼ and came up strongly.

Room traders took profits on the rise and Manhattan and some of the railroads reacted a point or more, including the Vanderbilts. Amalgamated Copper was depressed to 26 ex-dividend and Anaconda lost ½. Trading then became dull.

Bonds were irregular.

New York Central rose again to 160⅝, and Pennsylvania advanced 2. Manhattan crossed 124. There were advances of 1 to 2¾ in a number of obscure stocks, including St. Paul preferred, Great Northern preferred, Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg, Iowa Central common and preferred, Evansville and Terre Haute, and Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie, common and preferred. The recovery was general.

Room traders joined in the buying of various usually dormant stocks and they were advanced in many cases from 3 to 7½ points, principally those selling under 50. In the active quarter prices rose steadily but very slowly, Amalgamated reaching 92¼ and Anaconda more than recovering its earlier decline.

Slight profit-taking caused a momentary hesitation, but the advance was resumed with confidence, led by a 2⅞ point gain in Rock Island. The Grangers, Pacifics, Manhattan and other prominent stocks made the best prices of the day. Amalgamated Copper recovered its dividend and an additional fraction. The closing was quiet and about steady at only slight concessions.

THE MONEY MARKET.

New York, Sept. 27.—Money on call nominally at 3½ per cent; prime mercantile paper, 5@5½ per cent; sterling exchange steady with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.85¼@4.85½ for demand and at $4.83@4.83¼ for 60 days; posted rates, $4.84@4.86½; commercial bills, $4.82¾@4.83¼; silver certificates unquoted; bar silver, 58½c; Mexican dollars, 45½c.

Woman's Life Saved.

A rather curious case came to our attention of a woman in Detroit whose life was saved "several times," so she says, by Ath-lo-pho-ros. Once is a good record, but "several times" makes her a warm advocate of Ath-lo-pho-ros whenever rheumatism is mentioned—you can write to her if you want—Kate Naumne, 590 19th St., Detroit, Mich. She says Ath-lo-pho-ros is the best and only medicine that will cure rheumatism, "because it has cured me," and she says "the swelling and intense pain ceased within five minutes after the first dose." She further says, "the disease has no more dread for me as long as Ath-lo-pho-ros can be obtained." What it has done for her it will do for anyone.

BRILL SURPRISED

GENIAL RAILROADER AN UNEXPECTED HOST.

CONDUCTORS GIVE HIM PIPE

IN RETURN ENJOY HOSPITALITY OF BRILL HOME.

WOOD GETS OUT A NEW LAMP

DESIGNED FOR LIGHTING SUBWAYS IN CITIES.

Hrry Brill, formerly yardmaster of the Pittsburg at this point, now a conductor on a western road, is home for a week's visit with his family. Last evening he was the victim of a surprise party, perpetrated by some of his friends, all conductors, and their wives. There were seventeen couples in the party and they dropped into the Brill home in a body, taking the premises by storm. After the greetings and some friendly chat the party engaged in a game of progressive pedro, the first prizes going to Mrs. Thomas H. Coleman and Gottlieb M. Sauer, and the consolation prizes to Mrs. C. Cox and Frank I. Stump. The games were followed by a luncheon, at which Conductor McArdle distinguished himself as usual. During the evening the conductors presented Mr. Brill with a handsome pipe, the donors being represented in an oratorical way by Thomas McArdle in a manner that added luster to his reputation as a speaker. Mr. Brill will probably move his family to the west in the spring.

TO INCREASE BOILER PLANT.

The Pennsylvania company is preparing to increase the capacity of its boiler plant at the power station at the car shops. Orders were placed with the Bass Foundry and Machine company yesterday for a 72-inch by 20-foot high pressure tubular boiler, with an estimated capacity of 200-horse power, and as soon as the order can be filled the boiler will be placed at the side of the three 200-horse power boilers now in service and which were built by the Bass people, also, about two years ago. When the new power plant was planned provision was made for an increase in boiler facilities to any extent necessary.

BOOKED ENGINE ORDER.

The Sharon Sheet Steel company, of Sharon, Pa., placed an order with the Bass Foundry and Machine company yesterday for a 500-horse power Corliss engine, with shaft and balance wheel complete. The order also includes two fourteen-foot rope transmission wheels, grooved for eight ropes each. The Bass company today shipped two boilers to the Tipton Electric Light company, of Tipton, Ind.

GODFREY'S HUSKING BEE.

An old-fashioned husking bee was held at the suburban home of James Godfrey, out on Miller street, last night. There were eighteen participants, all of the male gender, and the affair was just as full of enjoyment to the guests as it was helpful to the host. One of the young men remarked that the party only lacked two things, the red ear and the pretty girl feature, to make it perfect in an enjoyable way. But this young man was an exception, for the others of the party declare they had a better time than they could have had had there been a hundred pretty girls present. Mr. Godfrey has charge of the railway pumping station at the St. Mary's river.

NEW ELECTRIC LAMPS.

General Manager J. J. Wood, of the Fort Wayne Electric company, has gotten out a new enclosed arc lamp, which is far ahead of anything in that line on the market. He took a photograph of the new lamp with him to Schenectady, to submit it to examination by the General Electric officials. Mr. Wood has also gotten out a new subway electric headlight which has reflectors for casting light in both directions and has already received an order from the Rapid Transit Subway Construction company, of New York, for twenty of the lamps. This order is in the way of an experiment and is likely to be followed by another order of far greater importance. These lamps will be used in the Harlem subway. Mr. Wood left for Schenectady last night.

ED BABCOCK HEARD FROM.

O. L. Babcock is in receipt of a letter from his brother, E. B. Babcock, who left this city less than two weeks ago for California. Ed writes that he has purchased ten acres of land near Corning, Cal., and that carpenters are already engaged in building a house for him and his family. He will engage in the cultivation of almonds and grapes and has confidence in the success of the undertaking. Mr. Babcock is located in a very rich section, his land being on the opposite bank of the river from the famous Leland Stanford estate. Mr. and Mrs. Babcock and their children are well and are pleased with their situation in the west. Mr. Babcock was employed as a car inspector by the Findlay road when he resided in this city.

THE BIG ENGINE ARRIVES.

The big E-2 passenger engine mentioned and described in these columns a week ago, arrived at the Pittsburg roundhouse last night and was the attraction for a big crowd of visitors, mostly engineers, at that place this morning. This engine is designed for service on the Fort Wayne road and she left with train 39 at 12:15 o'clock this afternoon upon her first trip out on the western end of the line. Engineer John Mooney presided at the throttle and Fireman Jacob W. Schaufer officiated at the firebox, and some of the officials rode in the cab also.

LABORATORY FOOT BALL TEAM.

The employes in the laboratory of the electric works have organized a foot ball team, to be known as the Laboratory foot ball team. The line-up is as follows: Left end, Doell; left tackle, Beucher; left guard, Murphy; center, Clussert; right guard, Patten; right tackle, Schultz; right end, Smith; quarterback, J. B. Mills; left halfback, Frank Mills; right halfback, Evans; fullback, Stover. The captain of the eleven is J. B. Mills. Nelson McLain has been chosen manager and teams desiring games are requested to address communications to him.

MR. HAYS IS SILENT.

San Francisco, Sept. 27.—President Charles M. Hays, of the Southern Pacific company, through his secretary, Mr. Ingraham, refused to discuss his plans for the future, and declined to discuss the possibility of his assuming the management of the Boston and Maine road. Mr. Ingraham intimated, however, that President Hays would doubtless issue a statement of his plans in the near future.

MR. BORNER OUT ON THE ROAD.

William Borner, division and general western freight agent of the Pennsylvania, is out on division C today on his regular monthly trip. He left the city on a special train at 7:20, accompanied by Supt. J. B. McKim, Trainmaster J. F. Patterson, Division Operator J. G. Jennings, Star Union Agent Harry Quicksell and Mr. Downs, Mr. Borner's assistant.

HE TORE UP HIS LONG GREEN

FRANCIS BROWN HAD A JAG OF PECULIAR KIND.

Destroyed His paper Money and Wept as He Did It—The News of the Police.

Francis Brown was a refreshing sort of an individual. Francis is a young fellow who says he lives at New Haven and he yesterday accumulated a lachrymose jag. It was one of the perrennial flowing kind that never fail in hot weather. He started to cry when he started to get drunk and he kept it up until he started for jail to do a fifteen day turn. He was observed at the Wabash depot this morning tearing up United States currency with a recklessness that indicated long acquaintance with large wads of money. He had a large roll composed of small bills and these bills he tore into bits and cast them to the four or five winds of the earth. Just as he got through his most extravagant scattering stunt the patrol wagon burst in on the stage. Francis cried a little harder than usual and told the officers that his mother died while he was still unweaned and that his father died before he was seven years old; since his sad bereavements he has had nothing to cheer him but an occasional paper-tearing expedition. At police court the judge listened patiently to his tale, watched his pumps work to their full capacity of forty-nine revolutions per minute and then told him he had better go to jail and be a good boy for at least sixteen days.

Mike Sullivan was reported on the police clerk's slate last night as being an ordinary "stiff drunk." When a man gets stiff drunk there is usually nothing doing, but in Mike's case he will be doing time at the county jail for eleven days, if Judge Louttit's edict holds good.

James Davis, a gentleman of color, who came to town on the front end of a car contrary to the printed rules of the Pennsylvania company was sent over the Rialto for eleven days for train climbing.

People who ride bicycles in the neighborhood of 63 East Main street are clamoring that a dog which does business in that neighborhood be shot.

There was a lively scrap on Calhoun street, between Main and Columbia streets, last night. Before the police arrived the combatants had separated and no arrests were made.

The proprietors of the Rocker Washer company, on Erie street, complain of the depredations of boys who insist on throwing stones through the factory windows after dark.

A wheel picked up on Clinton street last night awaits an owner at the police station.

A VALUABLE ACQUISITION.

Gotham (quizzically)—I don't suppose you have any mosquitoes in Jersey now that you have gotten after them with crude oil?

Jersey'ite (promptly)—That's right. Mosquitoes are so blame scarce now that we are preserving the body of one we found last week to be sent to New York and placed in the Museum of Natural History along with Jumbo.—Brooklyn Eagle.

A NEW TERROR.

"How did that inter-college base ball game come out this afternoon?"

"It wasn't a game. It was a slaughter. The other fellows beat us 39 to 0."

"Great Scott! What was the reason of that?"

"They rung in that new Australian student on us in the pitcher's box. He used to be a boomerang thrower."—Chicago Tribune.

The longest bridge in the world is the Lion bridge, near Sangang, in China. It extends five and one-quarter miles over an arm of the Yellow sea, and is supported by 300 huge stone arches. The roadway is seventy feet above the water, and is enclosed in an iron network.

STOVE THOUGHTS.

These nippy days now and then make thoughts of stoves pertinent and comfortable. It may be a little early to buy, but it certainly isn't too early to commence to look about if you expect to get the most for your money. If you want a stove and don't care what it is, or what you pay, buy at any old store. If you want something valuable, which will give good service and no trouble, and not cost a small fortune, come right this way. We have stoves suitable for your parlor, dining room or kitchen. Your money will buy more heat here than anywhere else.
